NEW England Mutual Life Ins.,
Of Boston, Mass., Chartered in 1843.
Capital and accumulation, $650,000.

THIS Company is one of the oldest, and among the most prudently and successfully conducted in the country. The primary object in conducting its business has been to provide perfect security under all conceivable circumstances, for the payment of its losses under its policies, and to return to the insured the surplus at stated periods, and strict economy is observed.

Every insured person is a member of the company and shares in the profits of the business, and is subject to no liability or assessments beyond his premium. The directors are required to be peculiarly interested in the company, and they give it their personal attention; and bonds of sufficient security are given by its officers for the faithful performance of their duties. Insurance may be effected for the benefit of the wife, which is secured to her by law, and the rate of a husband's creditors; and creditors may insure the lives of debtors.

WILLIAM PHILLIPS, President; J. F. STEVENSON, Secy.; CHAS. PULKEIT, Agent. O. P. ROBINSON, Examining Physician. June 15th, 1854. 41

Highly Important to Farmers.
THE ONLY EXCLUSIVE FARMERS' INSURANCE COMPANY IN THE WEST.

THE MADISON MUTUAL,
LOCATED AT MADISON, WISCONSIN.

THIS Company continues to take risks upon all Farm Property only, consisting of buildings of all kinds, (belonging to farmers), household furniture, grain in barns, live stock, &c., from one to five years, at lower rates than most other responsible companies.

All losses promptly paid at the office as soon as proof is made thereon.

We believe it to be for the interest of the farmers to insure with them, as they give it their personal attention, and they are not only their own, but all will be on an equal footing.

An experience shows that two-thirds, if not three-fourths of all the fires that occur are upon stores, taverns, mills, shops and such like property. In this company all such property is rejected positively, by LETTING THEM ALONE.

For the sake of your own interest, and insure in a Farmers' Company.

We have been doing business a little over three years, and we have not been obliged to assess our premium notes, and for the last fourteen months we have not had a single dollar loss, though doing a large and prosperous business, which we believe to be without a parallel in the history of insurance.

The best of references given as to the responsibility of the company.

It is a pure cure and preventive of Fever, Ague, Dyspepsia, Headache, and all diseases arising from impurities of the blood or inaction of the stomach. Try it.

THIS Company is one of the oldest,

Every insured person is a member of the company and shares in the profits of the business, and is subject to no liability or assessments beyond his premium. The directors are required to be peculiarly interested in the company, and they give their personal attention; and bonds of sufficient security are given by its officers for the faithful performance of their duties. SMOKING SONG.

Air—"Sparkling and Bright."

Floating away like the fountain's spray,
Or the snow-white plume of a maiden,
Our smoke wreaths rise to the starlit skies,
With blissful fragrance laden.

Chorus—Then smoke away 'till a golden ray, Lights up the dawn of morn'g,
For a cheerful glow, like a shield will bar
The blows of care and sorrow.

II.
The leaf burns bright, like the gems of light That flash in the braids of beauty, It nuzzles each heart for the hero's part,
On the battle plain of duty.
Then smoke away, etc.

III.
In the thoughtful gloom of his darkened room, Sits the child of song and story—
But his heart is light, for his pipe beams bright,
And his dreams are all of glory.
Then smoke away, etc.

IV.
By the blazing fire sits the gray haired sire,
And infant arms surround him,
And he smiles on all in that quaint old hall, While the smoke curls float around him.
Then smoke away, etc.

V.
In the forest grand of our native land,
When the savage conflicts ended,
The pipe of peace brought a sweet release,
From toil and terror blended.
Then smoke away, etc.

VI.
The dark eyed train of the maids of Spain,
"Neath their arbor shades trip lightly,
And a gleaming cigar, like a new born star,
In the clasp of their lips burns brightly.
Then smoke away, etc.

VII.
It warms the soul like the blushing bowl,
With its rose-red burden streaming,
It drowns it in bliss like the first warm kiss,
From the lips with love buds teeming.
Then smoke away till the golden ray,
Lights up the dawn of morn'g,
For a gleaming cigar like a shield will bar

ANNIE.

[There are some other achievements of smoking which ought to be portrayed, in order to present a perfect picture. We are half inclined to finish what Annie has so well begun. Perhaps she will do it for us.]

WATER.—An excellent thing is water. Next to the man who "invented cold," blessed by the who invented water—clear, cold, sparkling, ever delicious water! How manifold are its uses! Think what a vast deal it has done for navigation! to say nothing of washing, scrubbing and hydropathy. Even tea and coffee can't be made without it—and grog-sellers and the grog-drinkers owe it more than they are likely to confess—the former in money saved, the latter in intoxication avoided. Then what a charming drink it is! (We have tried it, and know.) We should wonder if it came, some day, into general use as a beverage. To be sure, it is abused—people drink it too cold, and sometimes too much of it. But that proves nothing against the use. As to hydropathy, it is well enough in moderation, especially if one takes a shower bath as Pat did—with the precaution of an umbrella!—but even water may be "run into the ground," which is often a sad waste of a good thing.

ROMANTIC AND FUNNY.—The love affair at Ypsilanti, Mich., which was alluded to by the Detroit Advertiser a few days since, had a happy termination. The young woman in search of a truant lover, attempted to shoot herself, it will be remembered, but was induced to forego that desperate intent. A brother of the young man who had absented himself, was sent in company with the young woman to Adrian, to search out the absentee and have justice done, his mother giving him $100 to pay expenses. The youngster was not proof against the charms which had overcome his brother, and on going nine miles the two concluded that it was useless to pursue a flying lover while a willing one was at hand, submissive to his flame. An impromptu marriage was consummated, and a letter soon after received informed the expectant mother of the fact, and that the funds designed for another purpose would be used to defray the expenses of a trip to Saratoga and other watering places, where the honeymoon was to be celebrated.

CAMPFIRE PRODUCING INSANITY.—The Toronto Colonist says: We are informed that no less than eight persons have been admitted into the lunatic asylum in a state of insanity, occasioned by consuming quantities of campfire to prevent cholera. Some of them carried it about in their pockets and kept from time to time eating small quantities of it. Others took it dissolved in brandy. In all cases where it was taken in any quantity it produced insanity. It is a fact well known that a comparatively small quantity of campfire will set a dog mad, and that he will soon after die.

COUNTERFEITER ARRESTED.—On Friday morning of last week, our village was thrown into some excitement by the report that two men had just left the place, one of whom had passed a counterfeit bill upon Mr. Eaton, of the Elkhorn House, after an unsuccessful attempt at two other places in town. The sheriff, accompanied by Messrs. Baird and Brackett, immediately started in pursuit, and overtook them a few rods beyond Delavan village. The sheriff told them he must search them, both alighted, when placing his hand on the breast of one of the offenders, the first thing he touched was the handle of a bowie knife, which he immediately drew out. He then told them they must go back to Delavan, when the one he had disarmed jumped off the bridge and started across the marsh for the woods. The sheriff started in pursuit, but had gone but a few rods when he heard a clicking, and turning saw the other villain, who had jumped into his buggy, snapping a pistol at Brackett, who had caught his horse by the bit. He immediately started back for the buggy, when turning his pistol on the sheriff, he snapped it two or three times at him ere he reached the buggy, once within a foot or two of his breast. Jumping into the buggy he caught hold of him, both jumped to the ground where they succeeded in disarming and binding him. Meanwhile the other reached the woods and escaped.

In their pocket-books were found a large amount of counterfeit bills on the Ashtabul bank; Keen, N. H., one of Adams & Co's second bills of exchange for $600, drawn in California. In their buggy was found a dark lantern, saddles, bridles, and all the paraphernalia necessary for accomplished villains. The prisoner was taken to this place and after an examination held to bail in the sum of $700, in default of which he was imprisoned.—Elkhorn Reporter.

NOR FORGOTTEN YET.—A Kentucky paper, the Paris Flag, thus contemptuously alludes to the War:

PASSED THROUGH.—Mat Ward (the murderer) accompanied by his family and a younger brother, Robert J. Ward, Jr., passed through this place on Monday last, on his way to the Blue Lake spring. It being election day, the town was full of people, and an immense crowd assembled at the Paris hotel to get a sight at the great villain before he took his departure in the stage. He was looking about as badly as live men ever do in a Christian country.

The Daily Gazette.

JANESVILLE : : : WISCONSIN.
WEDNESDAY MORNING, AUG. 30, 1854.

FROM CALIFORNIA.—The whig state convention met at Sacramento on the 25th July, and was in session for two days. G. W. Bowie, of Colusa, was chosen candidate for congress for northern California, and Calhoun Benham for southern. The proceedings were harmonious. Resolutions were passed in favor of territories forming their own laws, without the interference of the general government.

The democrats met in convention at Sacramento on the 19th. There was great confusion from the commencement; two chairmen and two sets of committees were appointed. The anti-electors nominated Gen. J. Denver, for the northern district, for congress, and Phillip Hurlbert for the southern. The electors nominated Latham and McDougall.

Peremptory orders had been received in San Francisco, by Commodore Eulany, requiring the despatch of two armed vessels to the Sandwich Islands, on the public service.

New and rich gold diggings had been discovered about 25 miles from Port Oxford, and also near Pine Grove, on the south fork of State creek and Rowland's flat.

The know nothings were organizing in Sacramento.

A Chilean bark had arrived at San Francisco, in 80 days from Hong Kong. She had 500 Chinese passengers, one hundred of whom died on the passage, also the captain, Charles Atwood. Fifteen prisoners escaped from state prison, four were shot down and three of them so badly wounded that they died soon after.

CLEVELAND, Thursday, Aug. 24th, 1854.
A frightful fire is now raging in the woods at Cuyahoga Falls, Franklin, Randolph, Ravenna, Robertson, Northfield, and parts of Summit and Portage counties, Ohio.

Even the soil is burning to the depth of one and a half feet. As the flames are driven forward by the wind, trees both dry and green, are ignited in an instant, and almost as quickly consumed.

Several barns in the vicinity of the woods, stored with hay and grain, have been destroyed. Apprehensions are entertained for the safety of the town Hudson.

There has been no rain in this section since the 29th of July, and all vegetation has suffered greatly from the drought.

Every attempt has been made to arrest the progress of the flames, but without success. Water cannot be brought to bear upon the fire in sufficient quantities to do any good.

Last evening this city was enveloped in smoke from the burning forest.

The woods near Painesville, for a mile in length, are all on fire.—N. Y. Tribune.

ST. ALBANS, (Vt.) Aug. 28.
A fire broke out in the woods about a half a mile north of Swanton, on the Vermont and Canada railroad, and ran along the road some three miles, burning up the ties and very badly bending the rails. The track is covered up with trees which have fallen across it.

The fire runs so deep in the forest that green trees are uprooted.

The railroad company carry the passengers around the fire in teams and boats, and then send them on in freight cars. No trains can pass at all.

About 2000 cords of wood belonging to the railroad have been burned.

The fire spread in the woods and fields very rapidly, and it is feared Swanton village will suffer badly.

The fire commenced in the woods some ways from the railroad.

TERRIBLE FIRES IN THE WOODS OF MAINE.—Fires are raging to a terrible extent in every section of Bangor, Me., and the damage to the woodlands and crops will be enormous. Buildings have been burnt down in Corinth, Charleston, Garland and other towns. In many places the entire population are engaged in fighting the fire. In the town of Garland it is said that a whole family, who live some distance from any other house, are entirely surrounded by the flames, having no means of escape. It is not known whether they are dead or alive.

IMPORTANT DECISION.—Judge Benning has decided that the supreme court of Georgia is co-equal and co-ordinate with the supreme court of the United States, and not inferior and subordinate to that court; that as to reserved powers the state court is supreme; that as to powers both delegated and reserved, or concurrent powers, both courts, in the language of Hamilton, are equally supreme; and that as a consequence the supreme court of the United States has no jurisdiction over the supreme court of Georgia, and cannot therefore give it an order or make for it a precedent.

If this decision be sustained, it makes the decision of our supreme court final as to the constitutionality of the fugitive slave act in this state. We are safe from its odious operation according to judge Benning. How will the slave holders of Georgia like such an application of the decision of their judge?—Mad. Jour.

We learn, upon good authority, that there is a letter in this city, stating that Gov. Barry will consent to become the candidate for governor on condition that the whigs nominate a distinct whig ticket, and on no other. The information is probably correct as well as the fact stated.—Detroit Tribune.

We have but little doubt of the truth of this rumor. Gov. Barry knows very well that unless the opponents of the dough faces in Michigan are silly enough to divide their forces, his party will be badly beaten in November. The question is so simple and so practical, that we cannot conceive it possible that any considerable number of the whigs of that state can be induced to gratify their ancient enemies.—Albany Jour.

ACCEPTANCE OF JUDGE BRONSON.—The Albany Argus of Thursday last says: "We have the high gratification to announce to our democratic friends throughout the state, that Judge Bronson, yielding to their earnest wishes and expectations, has consented to accept the nomination tendered to him by the democratic state convention, held at Syracuse on the 12th ult."

The "know nothings" triumphed in Chicago in a ward election, on Wednesday last, for Alderman. It was a ward which heretofore has been almost exclusively under the control of foreign voters.

A NEW POLITICAL ORGANIZATION.—At a recent meeting of the citizens of White Post, Clark county, Va., an organization was resolved upon styled the Friends of the Constitution. The object of the association is "the defence of the federal constitution, the maintenance of the rights of the states, the protection of civil and religious liberty, and the preservation of our glorious union."

AN EXTRAORDINARY STORY.—A gentleman living at Elk Run, in the lower end of this county, has the good fortune to possess the most remarkable grimalkin yet known of the cat kind. Its body is of unusual length, fur is of a reddish color, the whole beautified with black spots and streaks of different figures, they are long in the back and round on the belly and jaws. Black stripes run across the ears, which are very long and tipped at the ends with a blue tuft of hair. Its physiognomy is fierce, and its nature savage.

His masters' house being infested with snakes which had been bred in a neighboring stone fence, he took it in his head to eschew such game as rats and mice, and make war upon the snakes, all of which he soon destroyed. Having acquired a taste for this kind of sport, he extended the field of his operations, frequently making excursions more than a mile distant from the house, and returning each and every day with a snake ranging from 2 to 7 feet in length. He has continued this practice for eight weeks. On one occasion he returned much fatigued, and perfectly wet and covered with saliva. It was supposed he had encountered one of those large but rare serpents known as the Gooat. This turned out to be true, for the day thereafter Mr. Harry B. Ralls found the snake dead, and signs of a dreadful conflict on the sand. Most or nearly all the wounds had been inflicted on the back of the neck. The weight of the horrid serpent was fourteen pounds eleven ounces!

This class of serpents is a native of Eastern Virginia, with very large heads and great jaws, the mouth is armed with cutting teeth, among which are two longer than the rest, placed in the forepart of the upper jaw. All around the mouth there is a broad scaly border; and the eyes are so large, that they give it a terrible aspect. The forehead is covered with large scales. Each side of the belly is marked with large spots of chestnut color; in the middle of which, is a spot perfectly round, and like burnished gold. They have been known to swallow small pigs, musk-rats, opossums, &c.—They avoid the sight of man, and are consequently rarely seen.

The cat still continues his war upon the snakes. These facts may not gain credence at a distance, but they are so well known and attested, that no one in the neighborhood doubts them for a moment.—Warrington N. C. Whig.

THE VETO.—No doubt the Western Kansas-Nebraska men, though deeply indignant at the course of the president, will attempt to sustain the veto of the river and harbor bill. No matter if it has been passed by a democratic congress;—no matter if the principle has been sanctioned from the origin of our government down to the present day; no matter if the interest of the great west are suffering by this outrageous exercise of the veto power against a measure of a congress two-thirds democratic;—it will be sustained by the Kansas-Nebraska men. The president and Mr. Douglas have not yet done enough for the south. They would gaily southern slave men still further. They want our rivers and harbors to remain in a condition to injure and retard the vast commerce of the west. They view with entire complacency the destruction of life and property on our western waters—the great national highway of our commerce. They treat with contempt the precedents of all our previous Presidents. And all this is done—as the Kansas-Nebraska outrage was done to give strength and secure the votes of the south.—Ill. Weekly Journal.

LANDS IN KANSAS AND NEBRASKA.—The U. S. attorney general has published an opinion relative to the pre-emption rights in the territories. He says that the act of congress gives pre-emption only in such of the lands ceded by the Indians, as are not required first to be offered at public sale. That lands ceded under the common condition of being first offered at public sale, are no more open to pre-emption by act of congress, than was the military reservation at Fort Leavenworth. That these lands cannot be taken up by settlers under a claim of pre-emption, and that such claims will be void in law—moreover, it will be the duty of the United States to maintain its pledged faith in this matter.

We refer the Kenosha Tribune to the Milwaukee Sentinel as authority that the completion of the Lake Shore road has been postponed until the first of June, 1855. We merely state what we gathered from it, but we apprehend on our own authority the Tribune will find what it has been postponed not, it will be full as late as that before it is completed. Indeed we are willing to risk our reputation for guessing that its completion will be nearer January, 1856, than January, 1855. Railroads are not built in a day, nor generally within a year of the time promised.—Kenosha Telegraph.

THE BUTTERFLY PLANT.—The National Intelligencer says that a specimen of the singular and beautiful "butterfly plant" is now in bloom at the National greenhouse in Washington. The blossoms are very large and yellow, with reddish brown spots, and are moved to and fro with every breath of air, so as to resemble very much the gaudy insect from which it derives its name. The plant was brought from the island of St. Thomas in the U. S. frigate Raritan.

COALS TO NEWCASTLE.—We understand that the Catskill line of barges have been taking out, in large quantities from this city to that place, within a few weeks, for the supply of Greene and even Delaware counties. A barge on Friday evening had 1700 bushels on board; and loads of potatoes were brought here at $3.50 per bushel, to supply Catskill and vicinity. The drought is very severe in that region. We are reliably informed that the crop of potatoes, oats and buckwheat, their staple products, are almost destroyed, and their pastures dried up, affording a gloomy prospect for the coming winter.—N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

RAISING THE DEVIL.—A little boy, only nine years old, was arraigned before a Virginia county court, a few days back, for placing a fence rail across the track of the Manassas Gap railroad. He was caught in the act by a conductor of the train, and confessed he had placed the rail there to see the cars "bounce" as he had recently placed a stone there for the same purpose. In Virginia the offence is punishable by death, but in the exercise of a discretion which the common law permits with regard to children, the court decided to order twenty lashes to be inflicted, which was accordingly done.

ROBERT.—A man named Jerry Rogers, robbed sundry houses in Canton, Fulton Co., Ill., week before last, and escaped detection. The citizens, seeing the scamp was determined to persist in committing his depredations, finally turned out en masse, followed him into a cornfield, surrounded it, and attempted to arrest him, but he fought desperately, wrenching a double barreled gun from a young man, with which he kept his assailants at bay for some time, and they were obliged to shoot him before they could take him. He died of his wounds the day after he was taken.

A MONSTER IN HUMAN SHAPE.—A German, named Jacob Breniger, is now awaiting his trial in Wyoming county, in this state, charged with a series of offences that surpass in horror any of the tales which old wives tell bad children to keep them quiet, of giants who lived "once upon a time." This Breniger was formerly a Baptist preacher in North Carolina. While residing there he attempted an outrage upon his own daughter. His wife made the fact known, and Breniger, with his family, moved over into Wyoming. There he made another attempt to rape his daughter. Shortly afterwards, being desirous to obtain a renewal of his license to preach, he applied to his wife to retract the charge she had brought against him, and admit that she had sworn falsely. This she refused to do, notwithstanding he inflicted frequent and severe beatings upon her. At last, finding neither persuasion, threats, nor cuffs would have any influence, one night he dragged his wife from the bed, and dragged her over a piece of new ground full of stumps, injuring her so seriously that she died in a short time after giving premature birth to a child. Mrs. Breniger, at first, refused to tell the mode of receiving her injuries, but finding that death was inevitable, made some of the neighbors acquainted with all the facts. The husband was arrested, but released on bail. While under bonds he made an attempt to decoy his niece, a married woman, into some woods at the back of her residence, but she told her husband, who pursued the ruffian, and would have killed him but his gun missed fire.

This statement we have obtained from a gentleman residing in Tazewell, who is cognizant of all the facts. What punishment is bad enough for so vile a creature as this monster is?—Abington (Va.) Democrat.

JANESVILLE INDIGNANT.—Our volatile friend the Algerine, after his performance here proceeded to Janesville. He probably thought that the best way in which he could recommend himself to their good graces, was by assuring them that he had been well received in Madison. So upon his bills in glaring capitals he assured them, that he had been "visited by 3,000 persons of Madison composed of the leading and most distinguished citizens of the city." He further added that he carried "30 letters of recommendation from the first citizens of Madison to the citizens of Janesville." Janesville was of opinion that they could judge for themselves whether it was worth going to or not, and being a little "set back," at the imposing demonstration made here, they refused to patronize the Algerine, out of pure indignation at their having been patronized here. We admire their spirit, but it was rather hard on the mountebank to be "cleaned out" simply because Madison liked him.—Madison Argus.

THE SECRET OUT.—The secret attending the drugging of liquor during the late session of the New Hampshire legislature is out at last. An agent for the sale of guano, who kept samples of his powerful fertilizers in bowls, stopped at Gass's, the old line head-quarters, and his bowls of samples got set away by mistake with Gass's sugar bowls. It is needless to say more, as the reader's imagination will readily supply the denouement.

About one hundred negroes in Cuba who had purchased their freedom have taken their departure for Africa via England. The Havana correspondent of the New York Herald describes them as being in high spirits and dressed out in the most tawdry and ludicrous manner, especially the women, who flourish monster fans in imitation of the beautiful señoritas of the island. The present captain general of Cuba it is stated is earnest in his desire to put down slavery in Cuba.

BOILER BURST—ONE MAN KILLED.—At two o'clock on Saturday afternoon, a boiler burst near the foundry of A. P. Dickey. It was a new boiler and was set up out door for the purpose of trying it. A Norwegian by the name of Christopher Tullackson, who stood near by the boiler, was killed. A young man by the name of Evan Christenson was badly scalded, but will recover. The boiler was blown fifty feet against a pile driver, which it moved bodily, and then fell into the river. A coroner's jury sat on the corpse, and rendered a verdict in accordance with the above facts.—Racine Ad. 28th.

IOWA.—There are 100 counties in this state, only 65 of which are organized; and the most populous of them is Lee county, which contains 21,780 inhabitants. Burlington is the largest town in the state, and contains a population of 7,806. The entire population of the state in 1852 was 230,000, and its present inhabitants are estimated at 350,000.

ANTIMONY CANNON BALLS.—English papers state that experiments are being made by order of the British government, to test the effects of antimony cannon balls on wooden surfaces. It is found that the balls of this metal break upon striking, and the numerous particles into which they separate are scattered in many directions, and would spread death and destruction on every side. An immediate supply of these antimony balls is to be dispatched to the fleets in the Baltic and Black seas.

THE FEELING.—The very high price already offered for real estate in the burnt district, shows that there is no dismay in consequence of the fire. The whole square will soon be rebuilt and in style, and in substantial elegance, far superior to any block in the state.—Wis.

THE RUINS.—Gangs of men commenced work in various parts of the burnt district this morning, cleaning away rubbish preparatory to commencing the erection of substantial brick edifices. Since the fire the demand for stores has been far beyond the supply, and our business men, who have been burnt out, have no alternative but to build.—Mil. News. 28th.

The publisher of the Wheeling Times, in giving the particulars of a recent difficulty between himself and the postmaster at that place, says: "So far as my paper is concerned, it shall be published free from the restraints of office holders' threats, if I have to place a revolver at the case of every compositor, and plant a swivel at the door of my office."

CITY HOTEL RENTED.—Mr. Button, formerly of the U. S. hotel, has leased the City hotel, and is furnishing it in first rate style. It will be opened in a short time, when he will be glad to see his old friends and customers.—Mil. Sent.

ONE ONLY RE-NOMINATED.—Only one—Smith Miller—of the whole Nebraska delegation in congress from this state has been nominated for re-election, and it took fifty-two trials to do that. We predict that he will find it harder to be elected than nominated.—Indiana Free Democrat.

PARTY TESTS IN 1854.—Where is the democratic party, and how to be found? Is the present national administration the representative of it, or has it followed after strange gods?—The Washington Union, the organ of the administration, says the democratic party is to be found in the supporters of the Nebraska-Kansas bill, and that the president and his cabinet are the true representatives of the party and that none should be recognized as democrats but such as support the president in his new test. Hence we find the Nebraska papers rejoicing in the election of Kennett, a whig, over that sterling old democrat, Thos. H. Benton. When professed democratic papers rejoice on such occasions, we may well inquire, "where is the democratic party?" In the intoxication of power, the democratic party has exulted over its opponents as defunct—yes, has loudly proclaimed that the whig party is dead. The democratic party is now in danger; but not so much from old opponents as from new tests applied by those whom the party has warmed into life, and who now, viper like, poison their benefactors.

There is too much reason to fear that it is the determination of the present national administration to throw the power of the house into the hands of the whigs sooner than see anti-Nebraska democrats elected.

To what will the reflections of any reasonable man lead him when he looks over this state of political affairs of the country? They must inevitably lead him to the conclusion that party organization is breaking up, and that the power of the government will hereafter spring up fresh from the people, untrammelled by party ties or allegiance.—Burr Oak, (dem.)

RYE FOR FALL PASTURAGE.—The St. Louis Intelligencer says that a great many farmers in that region, finding their corn and grass crops short, are sowing rye for fall pasturage. Over fifty orders had been received from the country within a very few days for rye for this purpose.

PROMOTION FROM THE RANKS.—The late act making appropriations for the support of the army contains a provision which enables the president, with the consent of the senate, to confer the brevet of second lieutenant upon such meritorious non-commissioned officers as may, under regulations to be established, be brought before an army-board, composed of four officers, specially convened for the purpose and be found qualified for the duties of commissioned officers.

COMMANDER HOLLINS ARRESTED.—The Times informs us that on Thursday afternoon, Commander Hollins was arrested in New York, at the suit of Calvin Durand, for the destruction of property at the bombardment of Greytown. The order of arrest was granted by Judge Oakley, of the supreme court. The damages are laid at $14,000. The amount of bail given by Capt. Hollins was twenty thousand dollars. His sureties were Hon. Heman J. Redfield, collector of the port; John J. Cisco, sub-treasurer, and J. Romeyn Brodhead, naval officer.

Japan is a free and easy land. The climate is soft and delicious, the women pretty and polite, the men gallant and lazy. School don't keep but one day in the week, they have no preaching in hot weather, and allow good looking fellows four wives each, free of taxes, and plenty of servants to take care of his household. For life, that is not surpassed by anything common. Japan may be considered a good deal of the golden and sunshiny sort.

SMOKING SONG.

At "Sparkling and Bright."

Flashing away like the fountains' spray,
Or the snow-white plume of a maiden,
Our smoke wreaths rise to the starlit skies,
With bluish fragrance laden.

Chorus—Then smoke away 'till golden rays
Light up the dawn of tomorrow.
For a cheerful cigar, like a shield will bar

II.
The flash burns bright, like the gems of light That flash in the brain of beauty,
It nuzzles each heart for the hero's part,
On the battle plain of duty.

Then smoke away, &c.

III.
In the thoughtful gloom of his darkened room, Sits the child of song and story—
But his heart is light, for his pipe beams bright,
And his dreams are all of glory.

Then smoke away, &c.

IV.
By the blazing fire sits the gray haired sire,
And infant around him the morning And he smiles on all in that quiet old hall, While the smoke curls soft around him.

Then smoke away, &c.

V.
In the forest grand of our native land,
When the savage conflicts ended,
The pipe of peace brought a sweet release,
From toil and terror blended.

Then smoke away, &c.

VI.
The dark eyed train of the maids of Spain,
"Neath their arbor shades trip lightly,
And a gleaming cigar, like a new born star,
In the clasp of their lips burns brightly.

Then smoke away, &c.

VII.
It warms the soul like the blushing bow,
With its rose-red burden streaming,
It draws it in bliss like the first warm kiss,
From the lips with love buds teeming.

Then smoke away till the golden rays
Light up the dawn of tomorrow.
For a gleaming cigar like a shield will bar

ANNIE.

[There are some other achievements of smoking which ought to be portrayed, in order to present a perfect picture. We are half inclined to finish what Annie has so well begun. Perhaps she will do it for us.]

WATER.—An excellent thing is water. Next to the man who "invented" cold, "blessed be he who invented water"—clear, cold, sparkling, ever delicious water! How manifold are its uses! Think what a vast deal it has done for navigation! To say nothing of washing, scrubbing and hydropathy. Even tea and coffee can't be made without it—and grog-sellers and the grog-drinkers owe it more than they are likely to confess—the former in money saved, the latter in intoxication avoided. Then what a charming drink it is! (We have tried it, and know.) We shouldn't wonder if it came, some day, into general use as a beverage. To be sure, it is abused—people drink it too cold, and sometimes too much of it. But that proves nothing against the use. As to hydropathy, it is well enough in moderation, especially if one takes a shower bath as Pat did—"with the precaution of an umbrella," but even water may be "run into the ground," which is often a sad waste of a good thing.

ROMANTIC AND FUNNY.—The love affair at Ypsilanti, Mich., which was alluded to by the Detroit Advertiser a few days since, had a happy termination. The young woman in search of a truant lover, attempted to shoot herself, it will be remembered, but was induced to forego that desperate intent. A brother of the young man who had absented himself, was sent in company with the young woman to Adrian, to search out the absentee and have justice done, his mother giving him $100 to pay expenses.—
The youngster was not proof against the charms which had overcome his brother, and on going nine miles the two concluded that it was useless to pursue a flying lover while a willing one was at hand, submissive to his flame. An impromptu marriage was consummated, and a letter soon after received informed the expectant mother of the fact, and that the funds designed for another purpose would be used to defray the expenses of a trip to Saratoga and other watering places, where the honeymoon was to be celebrated.

CAMPFIRE PRODUCING INSANITY.—The Toronto Colonist says:
We are informed that no less than eight persons have been admitted into the lunatic asylum in a state of insanity, occasioned by consuming quantities of campfire to prevent cholera. Some of them carried it about in their pockets and kept from time to time eating small quantities of it. Others took it dissolved in brandy.
In all cases where it was taken in any quantity it produced insanity. It is a fact well known that a comparatively small quantity of campfire will set a dog mad, and that he will soon after die.

COUNTERFEITER ARRESTED.—On Friday morning of last week, our village was thrown into some excitement by the report that two men had just left the place, one of whom had passed a counterfeit bill upon Mr. Eaton, of the Elkhorn House, after an unsuccessful attempt at two other places in town. The sheriff, accompanied by Messrs. Baird and Brackett, immediately started in pursuit, and overtook them a few rods beyond Delavan village. The sheriff told them he must search them, both alighted, when placing his hand on the breast of one of the offenders, the first thing he touched was the handle of a bowie knife, which he immediately drew out. He then told them they must go back to Delavan, when the one he had disarmed jumped off the bridge and started across the marsh for the woods. The sheriff started in pursuit, but had gone but a few rods when he heard a clicking, and turning saw the other villain, who had jumped into his buggy, snapping a pistol at Brackett, who had caught his horse by the bit. He immediately started back for the buggy, when turning his pistol on the sheriff, he snapped it two or three times at him ere he reached the buggy; once within a foot or two of his breast. Jumping into the buggy he caught hold of him, both jumped to the ground where they succeeded in disarming and binding him. Meanwhile the other reached the woods and escaped.

In their pocket-books were found a large amount of counterfeit bills on the Ashuelot bank—Keen, N. H., one of Adams & Co's second bills of exchange for $500, drawn in California.
In their buggy was found a dark lantern, saddles, bridles, revolvers, and all the paraphernalia necessary for accomplished villains.

The prisoner was taken to this place and after an examination held to bail in the sum of $700, in default of which he was imprisoned.—Elkhorn Reporter.

NOT FORGOTTEN YET.—A Kentucky paper, the Paris Flag, thus contemptuously alludes to the War:

PASSO THROUGH.—Mat Ward (the murderer) accompanied by his family and a younger brother, Robert J. Ward, Jr., passed through this place on Monday last, on his way to the Blue Lick spring. If being election day, the town was full of people, and an immense crowd assembled at the Paris hotel to get a sight at the great unhung hero he took his departure in the stage. He was looking about as badly as live men ever do in a Christian country.

The Daily Gazette.

JANESVILLE : : : WISCONSIN.

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.
FROM CALIFORNIA.—The whig state convention met at Sacramento on the 25th July, and was in session for two days. G. W. Bowie, of Colusa, was chosen candidate for congress for northern California, and Calhoun Benham for southern. The proceedings were harmonious.
Resolutions were passed in favor of territories forming their own laws, without the interference of the general government.

The democrats met in convention at Sacramento on the 19th. There was great confusion from the commencement; two chairmen and two sets of committees were appointed. The anti-electionists nominated Gen. J. Denver, for the northern district, for congress, and Philip Hubert for the southern. The electionists nominated Latham and McDougall.

Emergency orders had been received in San Francisco, by Commodore Eulany, requiring the despatch of two armed vessels to the Sandwich Islands, on the public service.

New and rich gold diggings had been discovered about 25 miles from Port Oxford, and also near Pine Grove, on the south fork of State creek and Rowland's flat.

The know nothings were organizing in Sacramento.

A Chilean bark had arrived at San Francisco, in 80 days from Hong Kong. She had 500 Chinese passengers, one hundred of whom died on the passage, also the captain, Charles Atwood.
Fifteen prisoners escaped from state prison,
four were shot down and three of them so badly

A frightful fire is now raging in the woods at Cuyahoga Falls, Franklin, Randolph, Ravenna, Robertson, Northfield, and parts of Summit and Portage counties, Ohio.

Even the soil is burning to the depth of one and a half feet. As the flames are driven forward by the wind, trees both dry and green, are ignited in an instant, and almost as quickly consumed.

Several barns in the vicinity of the woods,
stored with hay and grain, have been destroyed.
Apprehensions are entertained for the safety of the town Hudson.

There has been no rain in this section since the 29th of July, and all vegetation has suffered greatly from the drought.

Every attempt has been made to arrest the progress of the flames, but without success.— Water cannot be brought to bear upon the fire in sufficient quantities to do any good.

Last evening this city was enveloped in smoke
from the burning forest.

The woods near Painesville, for a mile in length, are all on fire.—N. Y. Tribune.

SR. ALBANS (Vt.) Aug. 23.
A fire broke out in the woods about a half a mile north of Swanton, on the Vermont and Canada railroad, and ran along the road some three miles, burning up the ties and very badly bending the rails. The track is covered up with trees which have fallen across it.

The fire runs so deep in the forest that green trees are uprooted.

The railroad company carry the passengers around the fire in teams and boats, and then send them on in freight cars. No trains can pass at all.

About 2000 cords of wood belonging to the railroad have been burned.

The fire spread in the woods and fields very rapidly, and it is feared Swanton village will suffer badly.

The fire commenced in the woods some ways from the railroad.

TERRIBLE FIRES IN THE WOODS OF MAINE.— Fires are raging to a terrible extent in every section of Bangor, Me., and the damage to the woodlands and crops will be enormous. Buildings have been burnt down in Corinth, Charleston, Garland and other towns. In many places the entire population are engaged in fighting the fire. In the town of Garland it is said that a whole family, who live some distance from any other house, are entirely surrounded by the flames, having no means of escape. It is not known whether they are dead or alive.

IMPORTANT DECISION.—Judge Benning has decided that the supreme court of Georgia is co-equal and co-ordinate with the supreme court of the United States, and not inferior and subordinate to that court; that as to reserved powers, both courts, in the language of Hamilton, are equally supreme; and that as a consequence the supreme court of the United States has no jurisdiction over the supreme court of Georgia, and cannot therefore give it an order or make for it a precedent.

If this decision be sustained, it makes the decision of our supreme court final as to the constitutionality of the fugitive slave act in this state. We are safe from its odious operation according to Judge Benning. How will the slave holders of Georgia like such an application of the decision of their judge?—Mass Jour.

We learn, upon good authority, that there is a letter in this city, stating that Gov. Barry will consent to become the candidate for governor on condition that the whigs nominate a distinct whig ticket, and on no other. The information is probably correct as well as the fact stated.
—Detroit Tribune.

We have but little doubt of the truth of this rumor. Gov. Barry knows very well that unless the opponents of the dough faces in Michigan are silly enough to divide their forces, his party will be badly beaten in November. The question is so simple and so practical, that we cannot conceive it possible that any considerable number of the whigs of that state can be induced to gratify their ancient enemies.—Albany Jour.

ACCEPTANCE OF JUDGE BRONSON.—The Albany Argus of Thursday last says:
"We have the high gratification to announce to our democratic friends throughout the state, that Judge Bronson, yielding to their earnest wishes and expectations, has consented to accept the nomination tendered to him by the democratic state convention, held at Syracuse on the 12th ult."

The "know nothings" triumphed in Chicago in a ward election, on Wednesday last, for Alderman. It was a ward which heretofore has been almost exclusively under the control of foreign voters.

A NEW POLITICAL ORGANIZATION.—At a recent meeting of the citizens of White Post, Clark county, Va., an organization was resolved upon styled from heads. The object of the association to be "the defence of the federal constitution, the maintenance of the rights of the states, the protection of civil and religious liberty, and the preservation of our glorious union."

ROBBERY.—A man named Jerry Rogers, robbed sundry houses in Canton, Fulton Co., Ill., week before last, and escaped detection. The citizens, seeing the scamp was determined to persist in committing his depredations, finally turned out en masse, followed him into a cornfield, surrounded it, and attempted to arrest him, but he fought desperately, wounding a double barreled gun from a young man, with which he kept his assailants at bay for some time, and they were obliged to shoot him before they could take him. He died of his wounds the day after he was taken.

AN EXTRAORDINARY STORY.—A gentleman living at Elk Run, in the lower end of this county, has the good fortune to possess the most remarkable grimalkin yet known of the cat kind.

His body is of unusual length, fur of a reddish color, the whole beautified with black spots and streaks of different figures, they are long in the back and round on the belly and jaws. Black stripes run across the ears, which are very long and tipped at the ends with a blue tuft of hair.
Its physiognomy is fierce, and its nature savage.

His masters' house being infested with snakes which had been bred in a neighboring stone fence, he took it in his head to eschew such game as rats and mice, and make war upon the snakes, all of which he soon destroyed. Having acquired a taste for this kind of sport, he extended the field of his operations, frequently making excursions more than a mile distant from the house, and returning each and every day with a snake ranging from 2 to 7 feet in length. He has continued this practice for eight weeks. On one occasion he returned much fatigued, and perfectly wet and covered with saliva. It was supposed he had encountered one of those large but rare serpents known as the Gooat. This turned out to be true, for the day thereafter Mr. Harry B. Ralls found the snake dead, and signs of a dreadful conflict on the sand. Most or nearly all the wounds had been inflicted on the back of the neck.—
The weight of the horrid serpent was fourteen pounds eleven ounces!

This class of serpents is a native of Eastern Virginia, with very large heads and great jaws, the mouth is armed with cutting teeth, among which are two longer than the rest, placed in the forepart of the upper jaw. All around the mouth there is a broad scaly border; and the eyes are so large, that they give it a terrible aspect. The forehead is covered with large scales. Each side of the belly is marked with large spots of chestnut color; in the middle of which, is a spot perfectly round, and like burished gold. They have been known to swallow small pigs, musk-rats, opossums, &c.— They avoid the sight of man, and are consequently rarely seen.

The cat still continues his war upon the snakes. These facts may not gain credence at a distance, but they are so well known and attested, that no one in the neighborhood doubts them for a moment.—Warrington N. C. Whig.

THE VETO.—No doubt the Western Kansas-Nebraska men, though deeply indignant at the course of the president, will attempt to sustain the veto of the river and harbor bill. No matter if it has been passed by a democratic congress;—no matter if the principle has been sanctioned from the origin of our government down to the present day; no matter if the interest of the great west are suffering by this outrageous exercise of the veto power against a measure of a congress two-thirds democratic—it will be sustained by the Kansas-Nebraska men. The president and Mr.
Douglas have not red one enough for the south.
They would gratify southern slave men still further. They want our rivers and harbors to remain in a condition to injure and retard the vast commerce of the west. They view with ontio complacency the destruction of life and property on our western waters—the great national highway of our commerce. They treat with contempt the precedents of all our previous Presidents. And all this is done—as the Kansas-Nebraska outrage was done to give strength and secure the votes of the south.—
Ill. Weekly Journal.

LANDS IN KANSAS AND NEBRASKA.—The U.
S. attorney general has published an opinion resulting from the pre-emption rights in the territories. He says that the act of congress gives pre-emption only in such of the lands ceded by the Indians, as are not required first to be offered at public sale. That lands ceded under the common condition of being first offered at public sale, are no more open to pre-emption by act of congress, than was the military reservation at Fort Leavenworth. That these lands cannot be taken up by settlers under a claim of pre-emption, and that such claims will be rejected in law—moreover, it will be the duty of the United States to maintain its pledged faith in this matter.

We refer the Kenosha Tribune to the Milwaukee Sentinel as authority that the completion of the Lake Shore road had been postponed until the first of June, 1855. We merely restate what we gathered from it, but we apprehend on our own authority the Tribune will find whether it has been postponed or not, it will be full as late as that before it is completed. Indeed we are willing to risk our reputation for guessing that its completion will be nearer January, 1856, than January, 1855. Railroads are not built in a day, nor generally within a year of the time promised.—Kenosha Telegraph.

THE BUTTERFLY PLANT.—The National Intelligencer says that a specimen of the singular and beautiful "butterfly plant" is now in bloom at the National green-house in Washington.—
The blossoms are very large and yellow, with reddish brown spots, and are moved to and fro with every breath of air, so as to resemble very much the gaudy insect from which it derives its name. The plant was brought from the island of St. Thomas in the U. S. frigate Raritan.

COALS VS NEWCASTLE.—We understand that the Catskill line of barges have been taking out, in large quantities from this city to that place, within a few weeks, for the supply of Greene and even Delaware counties. A barge on Friday evening had 1700 bushels on board; and loads of potatoes were brought here at $3.50 per bu, to supply Catskill and vicinity.— The drought is very severe in that region. We are reliably informed that the crop of potatoes, oats and buckwheat, their staple products, are almost destroyed, and their pastures dried up, affording a gloomy prospect for the coming winter.—N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

RAISING THE DEVIL.—A little boy, only nine years old, was arraigned before a Virginia county court, a few days back, for placing a fence rail across the track of the Manassas Gap railroad.
He was caught in the act by a conductor of the train, and confessed he had placed the rail there to see the cars "bounce" as he had recently placed a stone there for the same purpose. In Virginia the offence is punishable by death, but in the exercise of a discretion which the common law permits with regard to children, the court decided to order twenty lashes to be inflicted,
which was accordingly done.

bed sundry houses in Canton, Fulton Co., Ill.,

A MONSTER IN HUMAN SHAPE.—A German,
named Jacob Breniger, is now awaiting his trial in Wyoming county, in this state, charged with a series of offences that surpass in horror any of the tales which old wives tell had children to keep them quiet, of giants who lived "once upon a time." This Breniger was formerly a Baptist preacher in North Carolina. While residing there he attempted an outrage upon his own daughter. His wife made the fact known, and Breniger, with his family, moved over into Wyoming. There he made another attempt to rape his daughter. Shortly afterwards, being desirous to obtain a renewal of his license to preach, he applied to his wife to retract the charge she had brought against him, and admit that she had sworn falsely. This she refused to do, notwithstanding he inflicted frequent and severe beatings upon her. At last, finding neither persuasion, threats, nor cuffs would have any influence, one night he dragged his wife from the bed, and dragged her over a piece of new ground full of stumps, inflicting her so seriously that she died in a short time after giving premature birth to a child. Mrs. Breniger, a girl, refused to tell the mode of receiving her injuries, but finding that death was inevitable, injured some of the neighbors acquainted with all the facts. The husband was arrested, but released on bail. While under bonds he made an attempt to decoy his niece, a married woman, into some woods at the back of her residence, but she told her husband, who pursued the ruffian, and would have killed him but his gun missed fire.

This statement we have obtained from a gentlemen residing in Tazewell, who is cognizant of all the facts. What punishment is had enough for so vile a creature as this monster is?—Abington (Va.) Democrat.

JANESVILLE INDIGNANT.—Our volatile friend the Algerine, after his performance here preceded to Janesville. He probably thought that the best way in which he could recommend himself to their good graces, was by assuring them that he had been well received in Madison.
So upon his bills in glaring capitals he assured them, that he had been "visited by 3,000 persons of Madison composed of the leading and most distinguished citizens of the city." He further added that he carried "40 letters of recommendation from the first citizens of Madison to the citizens of Janesville." Janesville was of opinion that they could judge for themselves whether it was worth going to or not, and being a little "set back," at the imposing demonstration made here, they refused to patronize
the Algerine, out of pure indignation at their having been patronized here. We admire their spunk, but it was rather hard on the mountain bank to be "cleaned out" simply because Madison liked him.—Madison Argus.

THE SECRET OUT.—The secret attending the drugging of liquor during the late session of the New Hampshire legislature is out at last. An agent for the sale of guano, who kept samples of his powerful fertilizers in bowls, stopped at Gass', the old line head-quarters, and his bowls of samples got set away by mistake with Gass' sugar bowls. It is needless to say more, as the reader's imagination will readily supply the demonstration.

About one hundred negroes in Cuba who had purchased their freedom have taken their departure for Africa via England. The Havana correspondent of the New York Herald describes them as being in high spirits and dressed out in the most tawdry and ludicrous manner, especially the women, who flourish monster fans in imitation of the beautiful señoritas of the island.
The present captain general of Cuba it is stated is earnest in his desire to put down slavery in Cuba.

BOILER BURST.—ONE MAN KILLED.—At two o'clock on Saturday afternoon, a boiler burst near the foundry of A. P. Dickey. It was a new boiler and was set up out door for the purpose of trying it. A Norwegian by the name of Christopher Tullackson, who stood near by the boiler, was killed. A young man by the name of Evan Christenson was badly scalded, but will recover. The boiler was blown fifty feet against a pile driver, which it moved bodily, and then fell into the river. A coroner's jury sat on the corpses, and rendered a verdict in accordance with the above facts.—Racine Adv., 28th.

IOWA.—There are 100 counties in this state, only 65 of which are organized; and the most populous of them is Lee county, which contains 21,780 inhabitants. Burlington is the largest town in the state, and contains a population of 7,806. The entire population of the state in 1852 was 230,000, and its present inhabitants are estimated at 350,000.

ANTIMONY CANNON BALLS.—English papers state that experiments are being made by order of the British government, to test the effects of antimony cannon balls on wooden surfaces. It is found that the balls of this metal break upon striking, and the numerous particles into which they separate are scattered in many directions, and would spread death and destruction on every side. An immediate supply of these antimony balls is to be dispatched to the fleets in the Baltic and Black seas.

THE FEELING.—The very high price already offered for real estate in the burnt district, shows that there is no dismay in consequence of the fire. The whole square will soon be re-
far superior to any block in the state.—Wis.

THE RUINS.—Gangs of men commenced work in various parts of the burnt district this morning, cleaning away rubbish preparatory to commencing the erection of substantial brick edifices. Since the fire the demand for stores has been far beyond the supply, and our business men, who have been burnt out, have no alternative but to build.—Mil. News, 28th.

The publisher of the Wheeling Times, in giving the particulars of a recent difficulty between himself and the postmaster at that place, says:
"So far as my paper is concerned, it shall be published free from the restraints of office holders' threats, if I have to place a revolver at the case of every compositor, and plant a snivel at KIER'S ROCK OIL.

FROM A Well 400 feet deep, Near Pittsburgh, Pa., is offered to the public as a Natural Medicine of no common value. It is a different thing from the old Kentucky or American Oil, as it is used INTERNALLY as well as externally. As a local remedy in Paralysis, Piles, Rheumatism, Loss of Sight, Burns, &c.,—also, as a valuable Internal Remedy for Piles, Ague, Scrofula, Coughs, Diarrhoea, Erysipelas, old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Female Diseases, Worms, Bladder and Kidneys, Bronchitis, Pain, &c., &c., it invites the investigating Physician, as well as the suffering patient, to become acquainted with its merits.
Discovered in 1849, it has within 2 or 3 years, made multitudes of cures, and multitudes of friends—and as soon as tried the Sales not only increased but sold out. Testimony to its great merit is constantly accumulating in the hands of the proprietor by certificates, letters, and in other ways.
IT CURES THE WHOLE MAN—flesh and blood—skin and bone—from head to foot—how it acts upon the system—upon diseases of different manifestations, we cannot fully tell. While it is both cathartic and astringent, it is also a tonic, and a powerful invigorant. A leading principle in its use is, to keep the bowels open in the family you will not be without it. Full as the world is of Patent Medicines—it is thought not best to suppress this, the work of NATURE—to make room for fraudulent imitations. Price 50 cents per bottle. It can be had of wholesalers at the large cities and towns in the West at Proprietor's prices.
HAVE WE AGUE AMONG US?—A tea spoonful every three hours in the absence of fever will cure you of Ague or Diarrhoea. Physicians, Druggists, and all friends of the afflicted, will do well to recommend this Oil for PROLAPSUS UTERI, and good will be done. Take the usual dose 2 or 3 times a day, and bathe the lower part of the body with it. It is a beautiful reddish color and clear. It is for Piles.
For sale by HOLDEN KEMP & CO., C. F. Simms, Cary & Gordon, Beloit; G. W. Kinsie, Magnolia; Goodrich, Dyer & Co., Milton; S. A. Pond, Albany; P. D. Vaughn & Co., Union; H. Cheney, Johnson; M. Elliot, Monroe.
R. M. LYON, Fort Wayne, Ind., Proprietor.

1000 Dollars Reward,
WILL be given to any person—Physician or otherwise—who will perform a cure as quickly and permanently, by any means whatever, of any of the following diseases, as can be done by the use of PULVERMACH'S Hydro-Electric Voltaic Chains.
ALL NERVOUS DISEASES
Are almost instantly removed by the simple application of the Electric Chains, which are constructed so as to be worn next to the skin, producing a constant current of uniting Electro-Magnetic force, and the same, and the last few years has been discovered to possess STRANGE and WONDERFUL POWER, in the INSTANT RELIEF and PERMANENT CURE of nervous diseases.
HISTORY.
Pulvermach's Chain are presented to the public, as the most scientific and convenient mode of applying this powerful agent. They have been secured by patent in France, (where they were invented) England, Germany, Austria, Belgium, and one year since introduced into the United States, and also secured by patent. They are used in every Hospital in the State of New York, and highly recommended by professors Valentine Mott, Van Buren, Post, Carnochan, of that city, who daily make use of them in their practice.
THE WORLD IS CHALLENGED
to produce so many well authenticated certificates of cure, not only from intelligent patients, but from celebrated Physicians. The sale now in New York is perfectly ASTONISHING, and thousands who visit the Crystal Palace where they are on exhibition, seldom fail to obtain a chain before they leave the city.
Thanks be to the common sense of the people who are beginning to become disgusted with the practice of making a Drug Shop of their stomach—swallowing bottle after bottle of sickening, disgusting trash, having no more effect in even relieving, much less curing, the disease for which they are recommended, than a Poor Man's Plaster applied to the top of the head would have in curing an infant of worms.
All these great and remarkable discoveries, by which every ill which flesh is heir to is eradicated from the earth—strange as it may seem—are made by men who are too ignorant to obtain a living by any other mode, and their knowledge of disease, its proper mode of cure, its cause, is just as extensive as Arab's is of the mechanism of a steam engine. No intelligent person will deny the truth of this, and no Physician dare risk his reputation as an honest man, and declare that nervous diseases are cured by the use of the Electric Chains, when relied by the antiquated way of giving medicine to the stomach. If people will only become sensible and think for themselves, and believe that physicians practice upon their credulity more than they have any idea of, pay strict attention to temperance in all things, (which means very much), make free use of pure cold water, internally and externally, with an occasional dash of soap, sleep in freely ventilated rooms, retire early and rise early, be happy and cheerful, employ their physicians to tell them "they require no physic"—by so doing health and happiness will increase, bottled molasses and water be at a discount, and famous discoverers be consigned to their legitimate stations.
The Hydro-Electric chains are now for the first time offered to the people of Nashua, as being a better, quicker, and safer mode of curing all nervous diseases, than any other method or means hitherto discovered. They can be used by either a grown person or a child, are always ready for use, and with little care will last for years.
CAUTION.
Ladies who are enclente, are requested not to wear chains for by long use, miscarriage is apt to be produced.
Price of Chains, $3 to $5, and can be sent by mail to any part of the country, together with a pamphlet of 96 pages, containing the modes of use, certificates of cure, &c., &c.

WILL be given to any person—Physician or otherwise—who will perform a cure as quickly and permanently, by any means whatever, of any of the following diseases, as can be done by the use of PULVERMACH'S Hydro-Electric Voltaic Chains.
ALL NERVOUS DISEASES
Are almost instantly removed by the simple application of the Electric Chains, which are constructed so as to be worn next to the skin, producing a constant current of uniting Electro-Magnetic force, and the same, and the last few years has been discovered to possess STRANGE and WONDERFUL POWER, in the INSTANT RELIEF and PERMANENT CURE of nervous diseases.
HISTORY.
Pulvermach's Chain are presented to the public, as the most scientific and convenient mode of applying this powerful agent. They have been secured by patent in France, (where they were invented) England, Germany, Austria, Belgium, and one year since introduced into the United States, and also secured by patent. They are used in every Hospital in the State of New York, and highly recommended by professors Valentine Mott, Van Buren, Post, Carnochan, of that city, who daily make use of them in their practice.
THE WORLD IS CHALLENGED
to produce so many well authenticated certificates of cure, not only from intelligent patients, but from celebrated Physicians. The sale now in New York is perfectly ASTONISHING, and thousands who visit the Crystal Palace where they are on exhibition, seldom fail to obtain a chain before they leave the city.
Thanks be to the common sense of the people who are beginning to become disgusted with the practice of making a Drug Shop of their stomach—swallowing bottle after bottle of sickening, disgusting trash, having no more effect in even relieving, much less curing, the disease for which they are recommended, than a Poor Man's Plaster applied to the top of the head would have in curing an infant of worms.
All these great and remarkable discoveries, by which every ill which flesh is heir to is eradicated from the earth—strange as it may seem—are made by men who are too ignorant to obtain a living by any other mode, and their knowledge of disease, its proper mode of cure, its cause, is just as extensive as Arab's is of the mechanism of a steam engine. No intelligent person will deny the truth of this, and no Physician dare risk his reputation as an honest man, and declare that nervous diseases are cured by the use of the Electric Chains, when relied by the antiquated way of giving medicine to the stomach. If people will only become sensible and think for themselves, and believe that physicians practice upon their credulity more than they have any idea of, pay strict attention to temperance in all things, (which means very much), make free use of pure cold water, internally and externally, with an occasional dash of soap, sleep in freely ventilated rooms, retire early and rise early, be happy and cheerful, employ their physicians to tell them "they require no physic"—by so doing health and happiness will increase, bottled molasses and water be at a discount, and famous discoverers be consigned to their legitimate stations.
The Hydro-Electric chains are now for the first time offered to the people of Nashua, as being a better, quicker, and safer mode of curing all nervous diseases, than any other method or means hitherto discovered. They can be used by either a grown person or a child, are always ready for use, and with little care will last for years.
CAUTION.
Ladies who are enclente, are requested not to wear chains for by long use, miscarriage is apt to be produced.

Capital and accumulation, $650,000.
This Company is one of the oldest, and among the most prudently and successfully conducted in the country. The primary object in conducting its business has been to provide perfect security under all conceivable circumstances, for the payment of its losses under its policies, and to return to the insured the surplus at stated periods, and strict economy is observed.

Every insured person is a member of the company and shares in the profits of the business, and is subject to no liability or assessments beyond his premium. The directors are required to be peculiarly interested in the company, and they give their personal attention and bond of sufficient security are given by its officers for the faithful performance of their duties. Insurance may be effected for the benefit of the wife, which is secured to her by law beyond the reach of a husband's creditors; and creditors may insure the lives of debtors.

Highly Important to Farmers.
THE ONLY EXCLUSIVE FARMERS' INSURANCE COMPANY IN THE WEST,
LOCATED AT MADISON, WISCONSIN.

THIS Company continues to take risks upon Farm Property only, consisting of buildings of all kinds, (belonging to farmers,) household furniture, grain in barns, live stock, &c., from one to five years, at lower rates than any other responsible companies. All losses promptly paid at the office as soon as proof is made thereon.

We believe it to be for the interest of the farmers to insure by themselves, their property being less hazardous than any other, consequently you will have no losses other than of the same class, and all will be on an equal footing.

Experience has shown that two-thirds, if not three-fourths of all the fires that occur are upon stores, taverns, mills, shops and such like property. In this company all such property is rejected ruthlessly, by LETTERS THIS ALONE.

Farmers, look to your own interest, and insure in a Farmers' Company.

We have been doing business a little over three years, and we have not been obliged to assess, and for the last fourteen months we have not had a single dollar loss, though doing a large and prosperous business, which we believe to be without a parallel in the history of insurance.

The best of references given as to the responsibility of the company.

"Sound the loud trumpet, and ever shall be," WHEELLOCK'S triumphant, and ever shall be.

THIS is the middle of the nineteenth century, the first half of which has produced more change and movement than any fifty years of our Christian Era.

The great controlling power of this age is its commerce—indeed, this may be truly called the commercial age.

It has been well said by an ancient writer that "Man wants but little here below," and to supply those wants

WHEELLOCK

Announces to every people and every tongue, to both sexes and all parties, to all nations of all ages, that finding his store entirely

TOO SMALL!

He has been compelled, in order to be able to supply the immense call for goods at his establishment, to Double the capacity of his Store Rooms!

Having purchased this spring, for this market, to be sold this season,

$39,007 00 Worth of Goods

But who can expect to read in the brief space of one life all the articles at the

BOSTON STORE CONTAINS.

Indeed, history must fail to give the searcher of knowledge any accurate idea of its immense

STOCK OF SUMMER-GOODS,

His inimitable selection of

Fancy Dress Goods!

He has over

10,000 Yards of Silk Barges, of every style and price, and it is with no great difficulty that the fair dame of this fair valley can select, FROM THIS ONE THOUSAND PIECES

Of all patterns and ranging in price from SIX CENTS per Yard to Twenty Dollars, such dresses as will add to their exquisite beauty, though it may be a general thing, be as difficult to add to that beauty as it is "to gild refined gold, paint the lily, or add perfume to the violet."

So that it need not be inferred that we offer only these and the many other articles for outer apparel, such as Chamois and Foulard Silks, but all manner of

are on change, so that every one may be entirely accommodated with every article of female apparel.—Eved French red foxed Gaiters, and French red foxed Gaiters, Ladies' Embroidered Boots, Embroidered Congress Boots,

LADIES' MOROCCO POLKAS

And all the articles named in the above list, and styles—So that of this store, so far as articles which adorn La Belle sexe are concerned, it may be truly said

"CUSTODIUM cannot state the infidelity variety."

While the Boston Store has made provision to protect the feet, it can also boast that it has all sorts of

GLOVES,

by which hands can be protected and retain

"The delicate wonder of fair Juliet's hand."

And in taking notice of those of whom it is no exaggeration to say they are

"Hecate's list, best gift to man."

The Nonpareils of beauty, the Paragons of perfection, Mr. Wheelock assures his fair customers that his sales, they will never in imitation of many of our contemporaries attempt to accomplish that object by equivocation, misrepresentation, exaggeration, tergiversation, fabrication, or by direct lying.

And now to the women of the

COARSE HAND SEX.

Mr. Wheelock has every kind of material to make these articles of dress that give to man his individuality.

PANTALOONS,

That fit every head from the Websterian brow to the country politician's scone, from the size of caput of him who is closely shorn at the Barberian fashion to that of him who wears the well-pomaded, ambrosiated, elongated Hyperion curls.

And to the speculator who buys to sell again,

The Boston Store

Can, at lower rates of usance than any other establishment west of the Alleghany mountains, furnish that class of exchanges so that riches will fill their pockets as water fills the sea, and to those who offer

POMESTIC GLASSWARE

Pocket Handkerchiefs, Inkstands, Cotton Yarn, Ready-made Vests, Ground Pepper, Flannels, Looking Glasses, Ready-made Overalls, Pants, Baiting, Flat Irons and Corsets, Bathing Lubricants, which the whining school-boy with shining morning face bears on his arm, Chests, Norwegian Bandboxes and Hair Trunks, Tea, Tobacco and Wicking.

CROCKERY

Line may be found the BENNINGTON, the PARIAN and the LAVA Manufacture, Pitchers for milk or water, Tea Pots, Spittoons, Bowls for washing, for bread and milk, or sugar, Candlesticks, children's Toys and Flower Pots, MAINE LIQUOR GLASSWARE and Lager Beer mugs.

And in line, the proprietor of this establishment can with all confidence assure those who have been in the habit of trading at Janesville that, although they have

"Often seen corruption bell and bubble till it over the sea."

they will find that the representations which shall be made to them by that proprietor or his clerks will not

"Send his fortils in a Barber shop,

PARTY TESTS IN 1854.—Where is the democratic party, and how to be found? Is the present national administration the representative of it, or has it followed after strange gods?—The Washington Union, the organ of the administration, says the democratic party is to be found in the supporters of the Nebraska-Kansas bill, and that the president and his cabinet are the true representatives of the party and that none should be recognized as democrats but such as support the president in his new test. Hence we find the Nebraska papers rejoicing in the election of Kennett, a whig, over that sterling old democrat, Thos. H. Benton. When professed democratic papers rejoice on such occasions, we may well inquire, "where is the democratic party?" In the intoxication of power, the democratic party has exulted over its opponents as defunct—yes, has loudly proclaimed that the whig party is dead. The democratic party is now in danger: but not so much from old opponents as from new tests applied by those whom the party has warmed into life, and who now, viper like, poison their benefactors.

There is too much reason to fear that it is the determination of the present national administration to throw the power of the house into the hands of the whigs sooner than see anti-Nebraska democrats elected.

To what will the reflections of any reasonable man lead him when he looks over this state of political affairs of the country? They must inevitably lead him to the conclusion that party organization is breaking up, and that the power of the government will hereafter spring up fresh from the people, untrammelled by party ties or allegiance.—Burr Oak, (dem.)

RYE FOR FALL PASTURAGE.—The St. Louis Intelligencer says that a great many farmers in that region, finding their corn and grass crops short, are sowing rye for fall pasturage. Over fifty orders had been received from the country within a very few days for rye for this purpose.

PROMOTION FROM THE RANKS.—The late act making appropriations for the support of the army contains a provision which enables the president, with the consent of the senate, to confer the brevet of second lieutenant upon such meritorious non-commissioned officers as may, under regulations to be established, be brought before an army-board, composed of four officers, specially convened for the purpose and be found qualified for the duties of commissioned officers.

COMMANDER HOLLINS ARRESTED.—The Times informs us that on Thursday afternoon, Commander Hollins was arrested in New York, at the suit of Calvin Durand, for the destruction of property at the bombardment of Greytown. The order of arrest was granted by Judge Oakley, of the supreme court. The damages are laid at $14,000. The amount of bail given by Capt. Hollins was ten thousand dollars. His sureties were Hon. Herman J. Rodfield, collector of the port; John J. Cisco, sub-treasurer, and J. Romeyn Brodhead, naval officer.

Japan is a free and easy hand. The climate is soft and delicious, the women pretty and polite, the men gallant and lazy. School don't keep but one day in the week, they have no preaching in hot weather, and allow good looking fellows four wires each, free of taxes, and plenty of servants to take care of his household. For life, that is not surpassed by anything common. Japan may be considered a good deal of the golden and sunny sort.

A NEW

SPARKLING SONG.

At a Sparkling and Bright.

Floating away like the fountain's spray,
Or the white plume of a maiden, Our music wreath rises to the starlit skies,
With blisful fragrance laden.

Chorus—Then smoke away 'till golden rays,
Light up the dawn of morn,
The blows of care and sorrow.

That flash in the bride's beauty, It naves each heart for the hero's part,
On the battle plain of duty.
Then smoke away, &c.

In the thoughtful gloom of his darkened room,
His child of song and story—
But his heart is light, for his pipe beams bright,
And his dreams are all of glory.
Then smoke away, &c.

By the blazing fire sits the gray haired sire,
And infant arms surround him,
And he smiles on all in that quaint old hall,
While the smoke curls about him.
Then smoke away, &c.

In the forest grand of our native land,
When the sunset conflict ended,
The plume of peace brought a sweet release,
From toll and terror blended.
Then smoke away, &c.

The dark eyed train of the malds of Spalar,
Neath their arbor shades trip lightly,
And a gleaming cigar, like a new born star,
In the clasp of their lips burns brightly.
Then smoke away, &c.

It warms the soul like the blushing bowl,
With its rose-red burden streaming,
It drowns it in bliss like the first warm kiss,
From the lips with love buds teeming.
Then smoke away till the golden rays
Light up the dawn of the morn,

ANNE.

[There are some other achievements of smoking
perfect picture. We are half inclined to finish what Anne has so well begun. Perhaps she will do it for us.]

to the man who "invented sleep," blessed by he who invented water—clear, cold, sparkling,
navigation! to say nothing of washing, scrubbing and hydropathy. Even tea and coffee can't be made without it—and grog-sellers and the
in intoxication avoided. Then what a charming drink it is! (We have tried it, and know.) We should not wonder if it came, some day, into
thing.

Ypsilanti, Mich., which was alluded to by the
company with the young woman to Adrian, to search out the absentee and have justice done,
The youngster was not proof against the charms
purpose would be used to defray the expenses
of a trip to Saratoga and other watering places, where the honeymoon was to be celebrated.

CAMPFIRE PRODUCING INSANITY.—The Toronto Colonist says:
We are informed that no less than eight persons have been admitted into the lunatic asylum in a state of insanity, occasioned by consuming quantities of campfire to prevent cholera.
Some of them carried it about in their pockets and kept from time to time eating small quantities of it. Others took it dissolved in brandy.
In all cases where it was taken in any quantity
that a comparatively small quantity of camphor
die.

COUNTERFEITER ARRESTED.—On Friday morning of last week, our village was thrown into
horn House, after an unsuccessful attempt at
two other places in town. The sheriff, accom-
ately started in pursuit, and overtook them a few rods beyond Delavan village. The sheriff
told them he must search them, both alighted,
the offenders, the first thing he touched was
drew out. He then told them they must go
heard a clicking, and turning saw the other vil-
a pistol at Brackett, who had caught his horse by the bits. He immediately started back for the buggy, when turning his pistol on the sheriff, he snatched it two or three times at him ere he reached the buggy, once within a foot or
where they succeeded in disarming and binding
him. Meanwhile the other reached the woods and escaped.

bills of exchange for $600, drawn in California.
In their buggy was found a dark lantern, saddles, bridle, revolvers, and all the paraphernalia necessary for accomplished villains.

an examination filed to bail in the sum of $700, in default of which he was imprisoned.—Elkhorn Reporter.

NOR FORGOTTEN YET.—A Kentucky paper, the Paris Paper, thus contemptuously alludes to

PASSED THROUGH.—Mat Ward (the murderer)
accompanied by his family and a younger brother,
place on Monday last, on his way to the Blue Lick spring. It being election day, the town
great unhung before he took his departure in the stage. He was looking about as badly as

The Daily Gazette.

JANESVILLE : : : WISCONSIN.
WEDNESDAY MORNING, AUG. 30, 1864.

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.
FROM CALIFORNIA.—The whig state conven-
was in session for two days. G. W. Bowie, of Colusa, was chosen candidate for congress for northern California, and Calhoun Bonham for southern. The proceedings were harmonious.
of the general government.

mento on the 19th. There was great confusion
from the commencement; two chairmen and
anti-electors nominated Gen. J. Denver, for the northern district, for congress, and Phillip Hubert for the southern. The electors nominated Latham and McDougall.

Peremptory orders had been received in San
Island, on the public service.

New and rich gold diggings had been discovered about 25 miles from Port Oxford, and also near Pine Grove, on the south fork of State
creek and Rowland's flat.

mento.

A Chilean bark had arrived at San Francisco,
Chinese passengers, one hundred of whom died
on the passage, also the captain, Charles Atwood.
Fifteen prisoners escaped from state prison,
four were shot down and three of them so badly

CLEVELAND, Thursday, Aug. 24th, 1864.
A frightful fire is now raging in the woods at Cuyahoga Falls, Franklin, Randolph, Ravenna,
Portage counties, Ohio.

sumed.

Several barns in the vicinity of the woods,
stored with hay and grain, have been destroyed.
of the town Hudson.

There has been no rain in this section since
greatly from the drought.

in sufficient quantities to do any good.

from the burning forest.

The woods near Palmsville, for a mile in length,
are all on fire.—N. Y. Tribune.

ST. ALBANS, (Vt.) Aug. 23.
A fire broke out in the woods about a half a
with trees which have fallen across it.

trees are uprooted.

The railroad company carry the passengers
around the fire in teams and boats, and then
pass at all.

railroad have been burned.

suffer badly.

from the railroad.

woodlands and crops will be enormous. Buildings have been burnt down in Corinth, Charlestown, Garland and other towns. In many places
known whether they are dead or alive.

living at Elk Run, in the lower end of this county, has the good fortune to possess the most remarkable grimalkin yet known of the cat kind.
Its body is of unusual length, fur is of a reddish color, the whole beautified with black spots and
stripes run across the ears, which are very long
and tipped at the ends with a blue tuft of hair.
Its physiognomy is fierce, and its nature savage.

His masters' house being infested with snakes
snakes, all of which he soon destroyed. Hav-
extended the field of his operations, frequen-
length. He has continued this practice for
tered one of those large but rare serpents known as the Goubat. This turned out to be true, for the day thereafter Mr. Harry B. Halls found the snake dead, and signs of a dreadful con-
The weight of the horrid serpent was fourteen pounds eleven ounces!

This class of serpents is a native of Eastern Virginia, with very large heads and great jaws,
the mouth is armed with cutting teeth, among
large spots of chestnut color; in the middle of which is a spot perfectly round, and like burn-ished gold. They have been known to swallow small pigs, musk-rats, opossums, &c.— They avoid the sight of man, and are consequently rarely seen.

snakes. These facts may not gain credence at a distance, but they are so well known and attested, that no one in the neighborhood doubts
them for a moment.—Warrington N. C. Whig.

the veto of the river and harbor bill. No
down to the present day; no matter if the interests of the great west are suffering by
this outrageous exercise of the veto power
democratic—it will be sustained by the Kansas-Nebraska men. The president and Mr.
Douglas have not yet done enough for the south.
entire complacency the destruction of life and property on our western waters—the great na-
with contempt the precedents of all our previous Presidents. And all this is done—as the Kansas-Nebraska outrage was done to give strength and secure the votes of the south.—
Ill. Weekly Journal.

LANDS IN KANSAS AND NEBRASKA.—The U.
S. attorney general has published an opinion relative to the pre-emption rights in the terri-
pre-emption only in such of the lands ceded by
the Indians, as are not required first to be of-
by act of congress, than was the military reser-
cannot be taken up by settlers under a claim of pre-emption, and that such claims will be void in law—moreover, it will be the duty of the United States to maintain its pledged faith in this matter.

We refer the Kenosha Tribune to the Milwaukee Sentinel as authority that the completion of the Lake Shore road has been postponed until the first of June, 1855. We merely state what we gathered from it, but we apprehend
not built in a day, nor generally within a year of

telligence says that a specimen of the singular
and beautiful "butterfly plant" is now in bloom
at the National greenhouse in Washington.—
The blossoms are very large and yellow, with
with every breath of air, so as to resemble very
land of St. Thomas in the U. S. frigate Raritan.

COALS TO NEWCASTLE.—We understand that
out, in large quantities from this city to that place, within a few weeks, for the supply of
on Friday evening had 1700 bushels on board;
and loads of potatoes were brought here at
The drought is very severe in that region. We are reliably informed that the crop of potatoes,
almost destroyed, and their pastures dried up,
ter.—N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

court, a few days back, for placing a fence rail
across the track of the Manassas Gap railroad.
to see the cars "bounce" as he had recently placed a stone there for the same purpose. In Virginia the offence is punishable by death, but in the exercise of a discretion which the common
decided to order twenty lashes to be inflicted,
which was accordingly done.

ROBBERY.—A man named Jerry Rogers, robbed sundry houses in Canton, Fulton Co., Ill.,
citizens, seeing the escape was determined to persist in committing his depredations, finally turned out on a posse, followed him into a cornfield, surrounded it, and attempted to arrest
double barreled gun from a young man, with
which he kept his assailants at bay for some

A MONSTER IN HUMAN SHAPE.—A German,
the tales which old wives tell bad children to keep them quiet, of giants who lived "once upon a time." This Breniger was formerly a Baptist preacher in North Carolina. While residing there he attempted an outrage upon his own
daughter. His wife made the fact known, and Breniger, with his family, moved over into Wyoming. There he made another attempt to rape his daughter. Shortly afterwards, being desirous to obtain a renewal of his license to preach, he applied to his wife to retrieve the charge she
beatings upon her. At last, finding neither per-
influence, one night he dragged his wife from
the bed, and dragged her over a piece of new ground full of stumps, injuring her so seriously
mature birth to a child. Mrs. Breniger, at first, refused to tell the mode of receiving her injuries, but finding that death was inevitable, made some of the neighbors acquainted with all the
tempt to decoy his niece, a married woman, in-
to some woods at the back of her residence, but
she told her husband, who pursued the ruffian,
and would have killed him but his gun missed
fire.

tleman residing in Tazewell, who is cognizant of all the facts. What punishment is bad enough for so vile a creature as this monster is?—Ad-lington (Va.) Democrat.

JANESVILLE INDIAN.—Our volatile friend
the Algerine, after his performance here preceded to Janesville. He probably thought
himself to their good graces, was by assuring
them that he had been well received in Madison.
So upon his bills in glaring capitals he assured
sons of Madison composed of the leading and
most distinguished citizens of the city." He
recommendation from the first citizens of Madison to the citizens of Janesville." Janesville was of opinion that they could judge for themselves whether it was worth going to or not, and being a little "set back," at the imposing de-
spunk, but it was rather hard on the mountebank to be "cleaned out" simply because Madison liked him.—Madison Argus.

drugging of liquor during the late session of the New Hampshire legislature is out at last. An
of his powerful fertilizers in bowls, stopped at Gass', the old line head-quarters, and his bowls
of samples got set away by mistake with Gass'
reader's imagination will readily supply the de-nouement.

About one hundred negroes in Cuba who had purchased their freedom have taken their departure for Africa via England. The Havana
correspondent of the New York Herald describes
the most tawdry and ludicrous manner, especially the women, who flourish monster fans in imitation of the beautiful señoritas of the island.
The present captain general of Cuba it is stated
Cuba.

BOILER BURST.—ONE MAN KILLED.—At two
o'clock on Saturday afternoon, a boiler burst
boiler and was set up out door for the purpose of trying it. A Norwegian by the name of Christopher Tollackson, who stood near by the boiler, was killed. A young man by the name of Evan Christenson was badly scalded, but will
a pile driver, which it moved bodily, and then fell into the river. A coroner's jury sat in accordance with the above facts.—Racine Adc., 28th.

IOWA.—There are 100 counties in this state,
only 65 of which are organized; and the most populous of them is Lee county, which contains
town in the state, and contains a population of
are estimated at 350,000.

ANTIMONY CANNON BALLS.—English papers
state that experiments are being made by order of the British government, to test the effects of
antimony cannon balls on wooden surfaces. It
is found that the balls of this metal break upon
striking, and the numerous particles into which they separate are scattered in many directions,
balls is to be dispatched to the fleets in the Baltic and the Black seas.

offered for real estate in the burnt district,
shows that there is no dismay in consequence of the fire. The whole square will soon be rebuilt and in style, and in substantial elegance, far superior to any block in the state.—WV.

in various parts of the burnt district this morning, cleaning away rubbish preparatory to commencing the erection of substantial brick edifi-
ces. Since the fire the demand for stores has
tive but to build.—Mil. News, 28th.

The publisher of the Wheeling Times, in giv-
himself and the postmaster at that place, says:
published free from the restraints of office hold-
case of every compositor, and plant a swivel at the door of my office."

CITY HOTEL RENTED.—Mr. Button, formerly of the U. S. hotel, has leased the City hotel, and is furnishing it in first rate style. It will be opened in a short time, when he will be glad to see his old friends and customers.—Mil. Sent.

ONE ONLY RE-NOMINATED.—Only one,
—Smith Miller—of the whole Nebraska delegation in congress from this state has been nominated for re-election, and it took fifty-two trials to do that. We predict that he will find it harder to be elected than nominated.—Jadana Free Democrat.

J. E. STONE,
CLERK OF THE CITY.

Floating away like the fountain's spray,
Or like the plume of a maiden, Our music wreath rises to the starry skies,
With blisful fragrance laden.

Chorus—Then smoke away 'till golden rays,
Light up the dawn of morn,
For a cheerful cigar, like a shield will bar
The blows of care and sorrow.

That flash in the buds of beauty, It naves each heart for here's the part,
On the battle plain of duty.

Then smoke away, &c.
In the thoughtful gloom of his darkened room,
His child of song and story—
But his heart is light, for his pipe beams bright,
And his dreams are all of glory.

Then smoke away, &c.
By the blazing fire sits the gray haired sire,
And infant arms surround him,
And he smiles on all in that quaint old hall,
While the smoke curls about him.

Then smoke away, &c.
In the forest grand of our native land,
When the sunset conflict ended,
The plume of peace brought a sweet release,
From toll and terror blended.

Then smoke away, &c.
The dark eyed train of the malds of Spalar,
'Neath their arbor shades trip lightly,
And a gleaming cigar, like a new born star,
In the clasp of their lips burns brightly.

Then smoke away, &c.
It warms the soul like the blushing bowl,
With its rose-red burden streaming,
It draws it in bliss like the first warm kiss,
From the lips with love buds teeming.

Then smoke away till the golden rays
Light up the dawn of the morn,
For a gleaming cigar like a shield will bar
The blows of care and sorrow.

ANNE.
[There are some other achievements of smoking which ought to be portrayed, in order to present a perfect picture. We are half inclined to finish what

to the man who "invented sleep," blessed be he who invented water—clear, cold, sparkling,
navigation! to say nothing of washing, scrubbing and hydropathy. Even tea and coffee can't be made without it—and grog-sellers and the
in intoxication avoided. Then what a charm-
We should not wonder if it came, some day, into
in moderation, especially if one takes a shower
thing.

Ypsilanti, Mich., which was alluded to by the
of a truant lover, attempted to shoot herself, it
company with the young woman to Adrian, to search out the absentee and have justice done,
The youngster was not proof against the charms
nine miles the two concluded that it was useless
to pursue a flying lover while a willing one was at hand, submissive to his flame. An impromptu marriage was consummated, and a letter soon
the fact, and that the funds designed for another
purpose would be used to defray the expenses
of a trip to Saratoga and other watering places, where the honeymoon was to be celebrated.

to Colonist says:
We are informed that no less than eight persons have been admitted into the lunatic asylum in a state of insanity, occasioned by consuming quantities of campfire to prevent cholera.
and kept from time to time eating small quantities of it. Others took it dissolved in brandy.
In all cases where it was taken in any quantity
die.

ing of last week, our village was thrown into
some excitement by the report that two men
had just left the place, one of whom had passed
a counterfeit bill upon Mr. Eaton, of the Elkhorn House, after an unsuccessful attempt at
two other places in town. The sheriff, accompanied by Messrs. Baird and Brackett, immediately started in pursuit, and overtook them a few rods beyond Delavan village. The sheriff
told them he must search them, both alighted,
the offenders, the first thing he touched was the handle of a bowie knife, which he immediately drew out. He then told them they must go back to Delavan, when the one he had disarmed
jumped off the bridge and started across the
heard a clicking, and turning saw the other vil-
a pistol at Brackett, who had caught his horse
the buggy, when turning his pistol on the sheriff, he snapped it two or three times at him ere
he reached the buggy, once within a foot or
where they succeeded in disarming and binding
him. Meanwhile the other reached the woods and escaped.

bank—Keen, N. H., one of Adams & Co's second
bills of exchange for $600, drawn in California.
In their buggy was found a dark lantern, saddles, bridle, revolvers, and all the paraphernalia necessary for accomplished villains.

an examination filed to bail in the sum of $700, in default of which he was imprisoned.—Elkhorn Reporter.

NOR FORGOTTEN YET.—A Kentucky paper, the Paris Pall, thus contemptuously alludes to
PASSED THROUGH.—Mat Ward (the murderer)
accompanied by his family and a younger brother, Robert J. Ward, Jr., passed through this place on Monday last, on his way to the Blue Lick spring. It being election day, the town was full of people, and an immense crowd as-
great unhung before he took his departure in
the stage. He was looking about as badly as live men ever do in a Christian country.

JANESVILLE : : : WISCONSIN.
WEDNESDAY MORNING, AUG. 30, 1864.

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.
FROM CALIFORNIA.—The whig state conven-
was in session for two days. G. W. Bowie, of Colusa, was chosen candidate for congress for northern California, and Calhoun Bonham for southern. The proceedings were harmonious.
of the general government.

The democrats met in convention at Sacramento on the 19th. There was great confusion
from the commencement; two chairmen and
the northern district, for congress, and Phillip Hubert for the southern. The electors nominated Latham and McDougall.

Peremptory orders had been received in San
Island, on the public service.

covered about 25 miles from Port Oxford, and also
near Pine Grove, on the south fork of State
creek and Rowland's flat.

The know nothings were organizing in Sacramento.

A Chilean bark had arrived at San Francisco,
in 80 days from Hong Kong. She had 500
Chinese passengers, one hundred of whom died
on the passage, also the captain, Charles Atwood.

Fifteen prisoners escaped from state prison,
four were shot down and three of them so badly

CLEVELAND, Thursday, Aug. 24th, 1864.
A frightful fire is now raging in the woods at Cuyahoga Falls, Franklin, Randolph, Ravenna,
Portage counties, Ohio.

ward by the wind, trees both dry and green, are ignited in an instant, and almost as quickly consumed.

Several barns in the vicinity of the woods,
stored with hay and grain, have been destroyed.

of the town Hudson.

There has been no rain in this section since
greatly from the drought.

in sufficient quantities to do any good.

from the burning forest.

The woods near Palmsville, for a mile in length,
are all on fire.—N. Y. Tribune.

ST. ALBANS, (Vt.) Aug. 23.
A fire broke out in the woods about a half a
three miles, burning up the ties and very bad-
with trees which have fallen across it.

trees are uprooted.

The railroad company carry the passengers
around the fire in teams and boats, and then
pass at all.

railroad have been burned.

suffer badly.

The fire commenced in the woods some ways
from the railroad.

Fires are raging to a terrible extent in every
section of Bangor, Me., and the damage to the
woodlands and crops will be enormous. Buildings have been burnt down in Corinth, Charlestown, Garland and other towns. In many places
fire.

In the town of Garland it is said that a whole family, who live some distance from any
known whether they are dead or alive.

co-equal and co-ordinate with the supreme court of the United States, and not inferior and subordinate to that court; that as to reserved powers the state court is supreme; that as to powers both delegated and reserved, or concurrent powers, both courts, in the language of Hamilton, are equally supreme; and that as a consequence
the supreme court of the United States has no
jurisdiction over the supreme court of Georgia, and cannot therefore give it an order or make
for it a precedent.

If this decision be sustained, it makes the decision of our supreme court final as to the constitutionality of the fugitive slave act in this state. We are safe from its odious operation according to Judge Benning. How will the slave holders of Georgia like such an application of the decision of their judge?—Mad. Jour.

We learn, upon good authority, that there is
on condition that the whigs nominate a distinctive whig ticket, and on no other. The information is probably correct as well as the fact stated.
—Detroit Tribune.

We have but little doubt of the truth of this
less the opponents of the dough faces in Michigan are silly enough to divide their forces, his
number of the whigs of that state can be in-
Jour.

ACCEPTANCE OF JUDGE BRONSON.—The Albu-ny Argus of Thursday last says:
"We have the high gratification to announce
to our democratic friends throughout the state, that Judge Bronson, yielding to their earnest
wishes and expectations, has consented to ac-
on the 12th ult."

The "know nothings" triumphed in Chicago
in a ward election, on Wednesday last, for Al-
been almost exclusively under the control of foreign voters.

cent meeting of the citizens of White Post, Clark county, Va., an organization was resolved upon styled "iron heads." The object of the association to be "the defence of the federal constitution, the maintenance of the rights of the states,
the protection of civil and religious liberty, and

living at Elk Run, in the lower end of this county, has the good fortune to possess the most remarkable grimalkin yet known of the cat kind.
His body is of unusual length, fur is of a reddish color, the whole beautified with black spots and
stripes run across the ears, which are very long
and tipped at the ends with a blue tuft of hair.
Its physiognomy is fierce, and its nature savage.

His masters' house being infested with snakes
snakes, all of which he soon destroyed. Hav-
extended the field of his operations, frequen-
length. He has continued this practice for
tered one of those large but rare serpents known
for the day thereafter Mr. Harry B. Halls found
the snake dead, and signs of a dreadful con-
The weight of the horrid serpent was fourteen pounds eleven ounces!

This class of serpents is a native of Eastern Virginia, with very large heads and great jaws,
the mouth is armed with cutting teeth, among
large spots of chestnut color; in the middle of which is a spot perfectly round, and like burn-ished gold. They have been known to swallow small pigs, musk-rats, opossums, &c.— They avoid the sight of man, and are consequently rarely seen.

tested, that no one in the neighborhood doubts
them for a moment.—Warrington N. C. Whig.

the veto of the river and harbor bill. No
down to the present day; no matter if the interests of the great west are suffering by
this outrageous exercise of the veto power
democratic—it will be sustained by the Kansas-Nebraska men. The president and Mr.
Douglas have not yet done enough for the south.
entire complacency the destruction of life and
property on our western waters—the great na-
with contempt the precedents of all our previous Presidents. And all this is done—as the Kansas-Nebraska outrage was done to give
strength and secure the votes of the south.—
Ill. Weekly Journal.

LANDS IN KANSAS AND NEBRASKA.—The U.
S. attorney general has published an opinion relative to the pre-emption rights in the territories. He says that the act of congress gives pre-emption only in such of the lands ceded by
the Indians, as are not required first to be of-
by act of congress, than was the military reser-
cannot be taken up by settlers under a claim of
United States to maintain its pledged faith in this matter.

We refer the Kenosha Tribune to the Milwaukee Sentinel as authority that the completion of the Lake Shore road has been postponed until the first of June, 1855. We merely state what we gathered from it, but we apprehend
not built in a day, nor generally within a year of

and beautiful "butterfly plant" is now in bloom
at the National greenhouse in Washington.—
The blossoms are very large and yellow, with
with every breath of air, so as to resemble very
land of St. Thomas in the U. S. frigate Raritan.

out, in large quantities from this city to that place, within a few weeks, for the supply of
on Friday evening had 1700 bushels on board;
and loads of potatoes were brought here at
The drought is very severe in that region. We are reliably informed that the crop of potatoes, oats and buckwheat, their staple products, are almost destroyed, and their pastures dried up,
ter.—N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

court, a few days back, for placing a fence rail
across the track of the Manassas Gap railroad.
He was caught in the act by a conductor of the
to see the cars "bounce" as he had recently plac-
decided to order twenty lashes to be inflicted,
which was accordingly done.

ROBBERY.—A man named Jerry Rogers, robbed sundry houses in Canton, Fulton Co., Ill.,
field, surrounded it, and attempted to arrest him, but he fought desperately, wrenching a double barreled gun from a young man, with
which he kept his assailants at bay for some
wounds the day after he was taken.

A MONSTER IN HUMAN SHAPE.—A German, named Jacob Breniger, is now awaiting his trial in Wyoming county, in this state, charged with a series of offences that surpass in horror any of the tales which old wives tell bad children to keep them quiet, of giants who lived "once upon a time." This Breniger was formerly a Baptist preacher in North Carolina. While residing there he attempted an outrage upon his own daughter. His wife made the fact known, and Breniger, with his family, moved over into Wy- oming. There he made another attempt to rape his daughter. Shortly afterwards, being desir- ous to obtain a renewal of his license to preach, he applied to his wife to retract the charge she had brought against him, and admit that she had sworn falsely. This she refused to do, not- withstanding he inflicted frequent and severe beatings upon her. At last, finding neither per- suasion, threats, nor cuffs would have any influence, one night he dragged his wife from the bed, and dragged her over a piece of new ground full of stumps, injuring her so seriously that she died in a short time after giving per- petrator birth to a child. Mrs. Breniger, at first, refused to tell the story of receiving her in- juries, but finding that death was inevitable, made some of the neighbors acquainted with all the facts. The husband was arrested, but released on bail. While under bonds he made an at- tempt to decoy his niece, a married woman, in- to some woods at the back of her residence, but she told her husband, who pursued the ruffian, and would have killed him but his gun missed fire.

lington (Va.) Democrat.

the Algerine, after his performance here preceded to Janesville. He probably thought
himself to their good graces, was by assuring
them that he had been well received in Madison.
So upon his bills in glaring capitals he assured
sons of Madison composed of the leading and
most distinguished citizens of the city." He
recommendation from the first citizens of Madison to the citizens of Janesville." Janesville was of opinion that they could judge for themselves whether it was worth going to or not, and being a little "set back," at the imposing de-
spunk, but it was rather hard on the mount-
ebank to be "cleaned out" simply because Madison liked him.—Madison Argus.

drugging of liquor during the late session of the New Hampshire legislature is out at last. An
agent for the sale of guano, who kept samples
of his powerful fertilizers in bowls, stopped at Gass', the old line head-quarters, and his bowls
of samples got set away by mistake with Gass'
reader's imagination will readily supply the de-nouement.

About one hundred negroes in Cuba who had purchased their freedom have taken their departure for Africa via England. The Havana correspondent of the New York Herald describes
them as being in high spirits and dressed out in
the most tawdry and ludicrous manner, especially the women, who flourish monster fans in imitation of the beautiful señoritas of the island.
The present captain general of Cuba it is stated
Cuba.

BOILER BURST.—ONE MAN KILLED.—At two
o'clock on Saturday afternoon, a boiler burst
boiler and was set up out door for the purpose of trying it. A Norwegian by the name of Christopher Tollackson, who stood near by the
boiler, was killed. A young man by the name of Evan Christenson was badly scalded, but will
a pile driver, which it moved bodily, and then
cordance with the above facts.—Racine Adc., 28th.

IOWA.—There are 100 counties in this state,
only 65 of which are organized; and the most populous of them is Lee county, which contains
town in the state, and contains a population of
are estimated at 350,000.

ANTIMONY CANNON BALLS.—English papers
state that experiments are being made by order of the British government, to test the effects of
antimony cannon balls on wooden surfaces. It
is found that the balls of this metal break upon striking, and the numerous particles into which they separate are scattered in many directions,
side. An immediate supply of these antimony
balls is to be dispatched to the fleets in the Baltic and the Black seas.

offered for real estate in the burnt district,
shows that there is no dismay in consequence of the fire. The whole square will soon be rebuilt and in style, and in substantial elegance,
far superior to any block in the state.—WV.

in various parts of the burnt district this morning, cleaning away rubbish preparatory to commencing the erection of substantial brick edifi-
ces. Since the fire the demand for stores has been far beyond the supply, and our business
tive but to build.—Mil. News, 28th.

The publisher of the Wheeling Times, in giv-
himself and the postmaster at that place, says:
published free from the restraints of office hold-
case of every compositor, and plant a swivel at

of the U. S. hotel, has leased the City hotel, and is furnishing it in first rate style. It will be
see his old friends and customers.—Mil. Sent.

ONE ONLY RE-NOMINATED.—Only one,
—Smith Miller—of the whole Nebraska delegation in congress from this state has been nominated for re-election, and it took fifty-two trials to do
Democrat.

PARTY TESTS IN 1854.—Where is the democratic party, and how to be found? Is the present national administration the representative of it, or has it followed after strange gods?—The Washington Union, the organ of the administration, says the democratic party is to be found in the supporters of the Nebraska-Kansas bill, and that the president and his cabinet are the true representatives of the party and that now should be recognized as democrats but such as support the president in his new test. Hence we find the Nebraska papers rejoicing in the election of Kennett, a whig, over that sterling old democrat, Thos. H. Benton. When professed democratic papers rejoice on such occasions, we may well inquire, "where is the democratic party?" In the intoxication of power, the democratic party has exulted over its opponents as defunct—yes, has loudly proclaimed that the whig party is dead. The democratic party is now in danger; but not so much from old opponents as from new tests applied by those whom the party has warmed into life, and who now, viper like, poison their benefactors.

There is too much reason to fear that it is the determination of the present national administration to throw the power of the house into the hands of the whigs sooner than see anti-Nebraska democrats elected.

To what will the reflections of any reasonable man lead him when he looks over this state of political affairs of the country? They must inevitably lead him to the conclusion that party organization is breaking up, and that the power of the government will hereafter spring up fresh from the people, untrammelled by party ties or allegiance.—Burr Oak, (dem.)

RYE FOR FALL PASTURAGE.—The St. Louis Intelligencer says that a great many farmers in that region, finding their corn and grass crops short, are sowing rye for fall pasturage. Over fifty orders had been received from the country within a very few days for rye for this purpose.

PROMOTION FROM THE RANKS.—The late act making appropriations for the support of the army contains a provision which enables the president, with the consent of the senate, to confer the brevet of second lieutenant upon such meritorious non-commissioned officers as may, under regulations to be established, be brought before an army-board, composed of four officers, specially convened for the purpose and be found qualified for the duties of commissioned officers.

COMMANDER HOLLINS ARRESTED.—The Times informs us that on Thursday afternoon, Commander Hollins was arrested in New York, at the suit of Calvin Durand, for the destruction of property at the bombardment of Greytown. The order of arrest was granted by Judge Oakley, of the supreme court. The damages are laid at $14,000. The amount of bail given by Capt. Hollins was twenty thousand dollars. His sureties were Hon. Herman J. Redfield, collector of the port; John J. Cicse, sub-treasurer, and J. Romeyn Brodhead, naval officer.

Japan is a free and easy land. The climate is soft and delicious, the women pretty and polite, the men gallant and lazy. School don't keep but one day in the week, they have to go to school in hot weather, and allow good looking fellows four wives each, free of taxes, and plenty of servants to take care of his household. For life, that is not surpassed by anything common. Japan may be considered a good deal of the golden and sunny sort.

PARTY TESTS IN 1854.—Where is the democratic party, and how to be found? Is the present national administration the representative of it, or has it followed after strange gods?—The Washington Union, the organ of the administration, says the democratic party is to be found in the supporters of the Nebraska-Kansas bill, and that the president and his cabinet are the true representatives of the party and that now should be recognized as democrats but such as support the president in his new test. Hence we find the Nebraska papers rejoicing in the election of Kennett, a whig, over that sterling old democrat, Thos. H. Benton. When professed democratic papers rejoice on such occasions, we may well inquire, "where is the democratic party?" In the intoxication of power, the democratic party has exulted over its opponents as defunct—yes, has loudly proclaimed that the whig party is dead. The democratic party is now in danger; but not so much from old opponents as from new tests applied by those whom the party has warmed into life, and who now, viper like, poison their benefactors.

There is too much reason to fear that it is the determination of the present national administration to throw the power of the house into the hands of the whigs sooner than see anti-Nebraska democrats elected.

To what will the reflections of any reasonable man lead him when he looks over this state of political affairs of the country? They must inevitably lead him to the conclusion that party organization is breaking up, and that the power of the government will hereafter spring up fresh from the people, untrammelled by party ties or allegiance.—Burr Oak, (dem.)

RYE FOR FALL PASTURAGE.—The St. Louis Intelligencer says that a great many farmers in that region, finding their corn and grass crops short, are sowing rye for fall pasturage. Over fifty orders had been received from the country within a very few days for rye for this purpose.

PROMOTION FROM THE RANKS.—The late act making appropriations for the support of the army contains a provision which enables the president, with the consent of the senate, to confer the brevet of second lieutenant upon such meritorious non-commissioned officers as may, under regulations to be established, be brought before an army-board, composed of four officers, specially convened for the purpose and be found qualified for the duties of commissioned officers.

COMMANDER HOLLINS ARRESTED.—The Times informs us that on Thursday afternoon, Commander Hollins was arrested in New York, at the suit of Calvin Durand, for the destruction of property at the bombardment of Greytown. The order of arrest was granted by Judge Oakley, of the supreme court. The damages are laid at $14,000. The amount of bail given by Capt. Hollins was twenty thousand dollars. His sureties were Hon. Herman J. Redfield, collector of the port; John J. Cisse, sub-treasurer, and J. Romeyn Brodhead, naval officer.

Japan is a free and easy land. The climate is soft and delicious, the women pretty and polite, the men gallant and lazy. School don't keep but one day in the week, they have to go to school in hot weather, and allow good looking fellows four wives each, free of taxes, and plenty of servants to take care of his household. For life, that is not surpassed by anything common. Japan may be considered a good deal of the golden and sunny sort.

SMOKING SONG.

Floating away like the fountain's spray,
Or the snow-white plume of a maiden,
Our smoke wreaths rise to the starlit skies,
With blissful fragrance laden.

Chorus—Then smile away till the golden ray,
Light up the dawn of tomorrow,
For a cheerful cigar, like a shield will bar
The blows of care and sorrow.

II.
The leaf burns bright, like the gems of light That dash in the brain's beauty, It nerves each heart, and the hero's part,
On the battle plain of duty.
Then smoke away, etc.

III.
In the thoughtful gloom of his darkened room, Bids the child of song and story—
But his heart is light, for his pipe beams bright,
And his dreams are all of glory.
Then smoke away, etc.

IV.
By the blazing fire sits the gray haired sire,
And infant arms surround him,
And he smiles on all in that quaint old hall,
While the smoke curls soft around him.
Then smoke away, etc.

V.
In the forest grand of our native land,
When the savage concedes defeat,
The pipe of peace brings a sweet release, From toll and terror blendeth, Then smoke away, etc.

VI.
The dark eyed train of the maids of Spain, Neath their arched shades trimly light,
And a gleaming cigar, like a new born star,
In the clasp of their lips burns brightly.
Then smoke away, etc.

VII.
It warms the soul like the blushing bowl,
With its rose-red burden streaming,
It draws it in bliss like the first warm kiss,
From the lips with love buds teeming.
Then smoke away till the golden ray Light up the dawn of the morrow
For a gleaming cigar like a shield will bar

ANNIE.

[There are some other achievements of smoking which ought to be noted, in order to present a perfect picture. We are half inclined to finish what

WATER.—An excellent thing is water. Next to the man who "invented sleep," blessed by the man who invented water—clear, cold, sparkling, over delicious water! How manifold are its uses! I think what a vast deal it has done for navigation! to say nothing of washing, scrubbing and hydropathy. Ever tea and coffee can't be made without it—and grog-sellers and the grog-drinkers owe it more than they are likely to confess—the former in money saved, the latter in intoxication avoided. Then what a charming drink it is! (We have tried it, and know.) We should wonder if it came, some day, into general use as a beverage. To be sure, it is abused—people drink it too cold, and sometimes too much of it. But that proves nothing against the use. As to hydropathy, it is well enough in moderation, especially if one takes a shower bath as Pat did—"with the precaution of an umbrella," but even water may be "run into the ground," which is often a vast waste of a good thing.

ROMANTIC AND FUNNY.—The love affair at Ypsilanti, Mich., which was alluded to by the Detroit Advertiser a few days since, had a happy termination. The young woman in search of a truant lover, attempted to shoot herself, it will be remembered, but was induced to forego that desperate intent. A brother of the young man who had absented himself, was sent in company with the young woman to Adrian, to search out the absentee and have justice done, his mother giving him $100 to pay expenses.—The youngster was not proof against the charms which had overcome his brother, and on going nine miles to the conclusion that it was useless to pursue a flying lover while a willing one was at hand, submissive to his flame. An impromptu marriage was consummated, and a letter soon after received informed the expectant mother of the fact, and that the funds designed for another purpose would be used to defray the expenses of a trip to Saratoga and other watering places, where the honeymoon was to be celebrated.

CAMPFIRE PRODUCING INSANITY.—The Toronto Colonist says:

We are informed that no less than eight persons have been admitted into the lunatic asylum in a state of insanity, occasioned by consuming quantities of campfire to prevent cholera. Some of them carried it about in their pockets and kept from time to time eating small quantities of it. Others took it dissolved in brandy. In all cases where it was taken in any quantity it produced insanity. It is a fact well known that a comparatively small quantity of campfire will set a dog mad, and that he will soon after die.

COUNTERFEITER ARRESTED.—On Friday morning of last week, our village was thrown into some excitement by the report that two men had just left the place, one of whom had passed a counterfeit bill upon Mr. Eaton, of the Elk-horn House, after an unsuccessful attempt at two other places in town. The sheriff, accompanied by Messrs. Baird and Brackett, immediately started in pursuit, and overtook them a few rods beyond Delavan village. The sheriff told them he must search them, both alighted, when placing his hand on the breast of one of the offenders, the first thing he touched was the handle of a bowie knife, which he immediately drew out. He then told them they must go back to Delavan, when the one he had disarmed jumped off the bridge and started across the marsh for the woods. The sheriff started in pursuit, but had gone but a few rods when he heard a clicking, and turning saw the other villain, who had jumped into his buggy, snatching a pistol at Brackett, who had caught his horse by the bits. He immediately started back for the buggy, when turning his pistol on the sheriff, he snatched it two or three times at him ere he reached the buggy, once within a foot or two of his breast. Jumping into the buggy he caught hold of him, both jumped to the ground where they succeeded in darning and binding him. Meanwhile the other reached the woods and escaped.

In their pocket-books were found a large amount of counterfeit bills on the Ashcroft bank; Keen, N. H., one of Adams & Co.'s second bills of exchange for $600, drawn in California. In their buggy was found a dark lantern, saddles, bridles, revolvers, and all the paraphernalia necessary for accomplished villains.

The prisoner was taken to this place and after an examination held to bail in the sum of $700, in default of which he was imprisoned.—Elk-horn Reporter.

NOT FORGOTTEN YET.—A Kentucky paper, the Paris Flag, thus contemptuously alludes to the War:

PASSED THROUGH.—Mat Ward (the murderer) accompanied by his family and a younger brother, Robert J. Ward, Jr., passed through this place on Monday last, on his way to the Blue Lick spring. It being election day, the town was full of people, and an immense crowd assembled at the Paris hotel to get a sight at the great villain before he took his departure in the stage. He was looking about as badly as live men ever do in a Christian country.

The Daily Gazette.

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.
FROM CALIFORNIA.—The whig state convention met at Sacramento on the 25th July, and was in session for two days. G. W. Bowie, of Colusa, was chosen candidate for congress for northern California, and Calhoun Benham for southern. The proceedings were harmonious. Resolutions were passed in favor of territories forming their own laws, without the interference of the general government.

The democrats met in convention at Sacramento on the 19th. There was great confusion from the commencement; two chairmen and two sets of committees were appointed. The anti-electors nominated Gen. J. Denver, for the northern district, for congress, and Phillip Hubert for the southern. The electors nominated Latham and McDougall.

Peremptory orders had been received in San Francisco, by Commodore Eulany, requiring the despatch of two armed vessels to the Sandwich Islands, on the public service.

New and rich gold diggings had been discovered about 25 miles from Port Oxford, and also near Pine Grove, on the south fork of State creek and Rowland's flat.

The know nothings were organizing in Sacramento. A Chilean bark had arrived at San Francisco, in 80 days from Hong Kong. She had 500 Chinese passengers, one hundred of whom died on the passage, also the captain, Charles Atwood. Fifteen prisoners escaped from state prison, four were shot down and three of them so badly wounded that they died soon after.

CLEVELAND, Thursday, Aug. 24th, 1854.
A frightful fire is now raging in the woods at Cuyahoga Falls, Franklin, Randolph, Ravenna, Robertson, Northfield, and parts of Summit and Portage counties, Ohio.

Even the soil is burning to the depth of one and a half feet. As the flames are driven forward by the wind, trees both dry and green, are ignited in an instant, and almost as quickly consumed.

Several barns in the vicinity of the woods, stored with hay and grain, have been destroyed. Apprehensions are entertained for the safety of the town Hudson.

There has been no rain in this section since the 29th of July, and all vegetation has suffered greatly from the drought.

Every attempt has been made to arrest the progress of the flames, but without success.—Water cannot be brought to bear upon the fire in sufficient quantities to do any good.

Last evening this city was enveloped in smoke from the burning forest.

The woods near Painesville, for a mile in length, are all on fire.—V. F. Tribune.

ST. ALBANS (Vt.), Aug. 23.
A fire broke out in the woods about a half a mile north of Swanton, on the Vermont and Canada railroad, and ran along the road some three miles, burning up the ties and very badly bending the rails. The track is covered up with trees which have fallen across it.

The fire runs so deep in the forest that green trees are uprooted.

The railroad company carry the passengers around the fire in teams and bonte, and then send them on in freight cars. No trains can pass at all.

About 2000 cords of wood belonging to the railroad have been burned.

The fire spread in the woods and fields very rapidly, and it is feared Swanton village will suffer badly.

The fire commenced in the woods some ways from the railroad.

TERRIBLE FIRES IN THE WOODS OF MAINE.—Fires are raging to a terrible extent in every section of Bangor, Me., and the damage to the woodlands and crops will be enormous. Buildings have been burnt down in Corinth, Charleston, Garland and other towns. In many places the entire population are engaged in fighting the fire. In the town of Garland it is said that a whole family, who live some distance from any other house, are entirely surrounded by the flames, having no means of escape. It is not known whether they are dead or alive.

IMPORTANT DECISION.—Judge Benning has decided that the supreme court of Georgia is co-equal and co-ordinate with the supreme court of the United States, and not inferior and subordinate to that court; that as to reserved powers the state court is supreme; that as to powers both delegated and reserved, or concurrent powers, both courts, in the language of Hamilton, are equally supreme; and that as a consequence the supreme court of the United States has no jurisdiction over the supreme court of Georgia, and cannot therefore give it an order or make for it a precedent.

If this decision be sustained, it makes the decision of our supreme court final as to the constitutionality of the fugitive slave act in this state. We are safe from its odious operation according to Judge Benning. How will the slave holders of Georgia like such an application of the decision of their judge?—Mad. Jour.

We learn, upon good authority, that there is a letter in this city, stating that Gov. Barry will consent to become the candidate for governor on condition that the whigs nominate a distinct whig ticket, and on no other. The information is probably correct as well as the fact stated.—Detroit Tribune.

We have but little doubt of the truth of this rumor. Gov. Barry knows very well that unless the opponents of the dough faces in Michigan are silly enough to divide their forces, his party will be badly beaten in November. The question is so simple and so practical, that we cannot conceive it possible that any considerable number of the whigs of that state can be induced to gratify their ancient enemies.—Albany Jour.

ACCEPTANCE OF JUDGE BRONSON.—The Albany Argus of Thursday last says:
"We have the high gratification to announce to our democratic friends throughout the state, that Judge Bronson, yielding to their earnest wishes and expectations, has consented to accept the nomination tendered to him by the democratic state convention, held at Syracuse on the 12th ult."

The "know nothings" triumphed in Chicago in a ward election, on Wednesday last, for Alderman. It was a ward which heretofore has been almost exclusively under the control of foreign voters.

A NEW POLITICAL ORGANIZATION.—At a recent meeting of the citizens of White Post, Clark county, Va., an organization was resolved upon styled iron heads. The object of the association to be "the defence of the federal constitution, the maintenance of the rights of the states, the protection of civil and religious liberty, and the preservation of our glorious union."

AN EXTRAORDINARY STORY.—A gentleman living at Elk Run, in the lower end of this county, has the good fortune to possess the most remarkable grinnalkin yet known of the cat kind. Its body is of unusual length, fur is of a reddish color, the whole beautified with black spots and streaks of different figures, they are long in the back and round on the belly and jaws. Black stripes run across the ears, which are very long and tipped at the ends with a blue tuft of hair. Its physiognomy is fierce, and its nature savage.

His masters' house being infested with snakes which had been bred in a neighboring stone fence, he took it in his head to eschew such game as rats and mice, and make war upon the snakes, all of which he soon destroyed. Having acquired a taste for this kind of sport, he extended the field of his operations, frequently making excursions more than a mile distant from the house, and returning each and every day with a snake ranging from 2 to 7 feet in length. He has continued this practice for eight weeks. On one occasion he returned much fatigued, and perfectly wet and covered with saliva. It was supposed he had encountered one of those large but rare serpents known as the Gooat. This turned out to be true, for the day thereafter Mr. Harry B. Ralls found the snake dead, and signs of a dreadful conflict on the sand. Most or nearly all the wounds had been inflicted on the back of the neck.—The weight of the horrid serpent was fourteen pounds eleven ounces!

This class of serpents is a native of Eastern Virginia, with very large heads and great jaws, the mouth is armed with cutting teeth, among which are two longer than the rest, placed in the forepart of the upper jaw. All around the mouth there is a broad scaly border; and the eyes are so large, that they give it a terrible aspect. The forehead is covered with large scales. Each side of the belly is marbled with large spots of chestnut color; in the middle of which, is a spot perfectly round, and like burnished gold. They have been known to swallow small pigs, musk-rats, opossums, &c.—They avoid the sight of man, and are consequently rarely seen.

The cat still continues his war upon the snakes. These facts may not gain credence at a distance, but they are so well known and attested, that no one in the neighborhood doubts them for a moment.—Warrington N. C. Whig.

THE VLTO.—No doubt the Western Kansas-Nebraska men, though deeply indignant at the course of the president, will attempt to sustain the veto of the river and harbor bill. No matter if it has been passed by a democratic congress; no matter if the principle has been sanctioned from the origin of our government down to the present day; no matter if the interest of the great west are suffering by this outrageous exercise of the veto power against a measure of a congress two-thirds democratic;—it will be sustained by the Kansas-Nebraska men. The president and Mr. Douglas have not yet done enough for the south. They would gaily southern slave men still further. They want our rivers and harbors to remain in a condition to injure and retard the vast commerce of the west. They view with contempt the precedents of all our previous Presidents. And all this is done—as the Kansas-Nebraska outrage was done to give strength and secure the votes of the south.—Ill. Weekly Journal.

LANDS IN KANSAS AND NEBRASKA.—The U. S. attorney general has published an opinion relative to the pre-emption rights in the territories. He says that the act of congress gives pre-emption only in such of the lands ceded by the Indians, as are not required first to be offered at public sale. That lands ceded under the common condition of being first offered at public sale, are no more open to pre-emption by act of congress, than was the military reservation at Fort Leavenworth. That these lands cannot be taken up by settlers under a claim of pre-emption, and that such claims will be void in law—moreover, it will be the duty of the United States to maintain its plighted faith in this matter.

We refer the Kenosha Tribune to the Milwaukee Sentinel as authority that the completion of the Lake Shore road has been postponed until the first of June, 1855. We merely stated what we gathered from it, but we apprehend on our own authority the Tribune will find whether it has been postponed or not, it will be full as late as that before it is completed. Indeed we are willing to risk our reputation for guessing that its completion will be nearer January, 1856, than January, 1855. Railroads are not built in a day, nor generally within a year of the time promised.—Kenosha Telegraph.

THE BUTTERFLY PLANT.—The National Intelligencer says that a specimen of the singular and beautiful "butterfly plant" is now in bloom at the National greenhouse in Washington.—The blossoms are very large and yellow, with reddish brown spots, and are moved to and fro with every breath of air, so as to resemble very much the gaudy insect from which it derives its name. The plant was brought from the island of St. Thomas in the U. S. frigate Raritan.

COALS TO NEWCASTLE.—We understand that the Cutskill line of barges have been taking out, in large quantities from this city to that place, within a few weeks, for the supply of Greene and even Delaware counties. A barge on Friday evening had 1700 bushels on board; and loads of potatoes were brought here at $3.50 per bbl, to supply Cutskill and vicinity.—The drought is very severe in that region. We are reliably informed that the crop of potatoes, oats and buckwheat, their staple products, are almost destroyed, and their pastures dried up, affording a gloomy prospect for the coming winter.—N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

RAISING THE DEVIL.—A little boy, only nine years old, was arraigned before a Virginia county court, a few days back, for placing a fence rail across the track of the Manassas Gap railroad. He was caught in the act by a conductor of the train, and confessed he had placed the rail there to see the cars "bounce" as he had recently placed a stone there for the same purpose. In Virginia the offence is punishable by death, but in the exercise of a discretion which the common law permits with regard to children, the court decided to order twenty lashes to be inflicted, which was accordingly done.

RONNERY.—A man named Jerry Rogers, robbed sundry houses in Canton, Fulton Co., Ill., week before last, and escaped detection. The citizens, seeing the escape was determined to persist in committing his depredations, finally turned out on mass, followed him into a cornfield, surrounded it, and attempted to arrest him, but he fought desperately, wounding a double barreled gun from a young man, with which he kept his assailants at bay for some time, and they were obliged to shoot him before they could take him. He died of his wounds the day after he was taken.

A MONSTER IN HUMAN SHAPE.—A German, named Jacob Brenigar, is now awaiting his trial in Wyoming county, in this state, charged with a series of offences that surpass in horror any of the tales which old wives tell bad children to keep them quiet, of giants who lived "once upon a time." This Brenigar was formerly a Baptist preacher in North Carolina. While residing there he attempted an outrage upon his own daughter. His wife made the fact known, and Brenigar, with his family, moved over into Wyoming. There he made another attempt to rape his daughter. Shortly afterwards, being desirous to obtain a renewal of his license to preach, he applied to his wife to retract the charge she had brought against him, and admit that she had sworn falsely. This she refused to do, notwithstanding he inflicted frequent and severe beatings upon her. At last, finding neither persuasion, threats, nor caresses would have any influence, one night he dragged his wife from the bed, and dragged her over a piece of new ground full of stumps, injuring her so seriously that she died in a short time after giving premature birth to a child. Mrs. Brenigar, at first, refused to tell the mode of receiving her injuries, but finding that death was inevitable, made some of the neighbors acquainted with all the facts. The husband was arrested, but released on bail. While under bonds he made an attempt to decoy his niece, a married woman, into some woods at the back of her residence, but she told her husband, who pursued the ruffian, and would have killed him but his gun missed fire.

This statement we have obtained from a gentleman residing in Tazewell, who is cognizant of all the facts. What punishment is bad enough for so vile a creature as this monster is?—Abingdon (Va.) Democrat.

JANESVILLE INDIAN.—Our volatile friend the Algerine, after his performance here proceeded to Janesville. He probably thought that the best way in which he could recommend himself to their good graces, was by assuring them that he had been well received in Madison. So upon his bills in glaring capitals he assured them, that he had been "visited by 3,000 persons of Madison composed of the leading and most distinguished citizens of the city." He further added that he carried "30 letters of recommendation from the first citizens of Madison to the citizens of Janesville." Janesville was of opinion that they could judge for themselves whether it was worth going to or not, and being a little "set back," at the imposing demonstration made here, they refused to patronize the Algerine, out of pure indignation at their having been patronized here. We admire their spirit, but it was rather hard on the mountebank to be "cleaned out" simply because Madison liked him.—Madison Argus.

THE SECRET OUT.—The secret attending the drugging of liquor during the late session of the New Hampshire legislature is out at last. An agent for the sale of guano, who kept samples of his powerful fertilizers in bowls, stopped at Gass's, the old line head-quarters, and his bowls of samples got set away by mistake with Gass's sugar bowls. It is needless to say more, as the reader's imagination will readily supply the denouement.

About one hundred negroes in Cuba who had purchased their freedom, have taken their departure for Africa via England. The Havana correspondent of the New York Herald describes them as being in high spirits and dressed out in the most tawdry and ludicrous manner, especially the women, who flourish monster fans in imitation of the beautiful señoritas of the island. The present captain general of Cuba it is stated is earnest in his desire to put down slavery in Cuba.

BOILER BURST.—ONE MAN KILLED.—At two o'clock on Saturday afternoon, a boiler burst near the foundry of A. P. Dickey. It was a new boiler and was set up out door for the purpose of trying it. A Norwegian by the name of Christopher Tolkachson, who stood near by the boiler, was killed. A young man by the name of Evan Christenson was badly scalded, but will recover. The boiler was blown fifty feet against a pile driver, which it moved bodily, and then fell into the river. A coroner's jury sat on the corpse, and rendered a verdict in accordance with the above facts.—Racine Ad., 28th.

IOWA.—There are 100 counties in this state, only 65 of which are organized; and the most populous of them is Lee county, which contains 21,780 inhabitants. Burlington is the largest town in the state, and contains a population of 7,800. The entire population of the state in 1852 was 230,000, and its present inhabitants are estimated at 350,000.

ANTIMONY CANNON BALLS.—English papers state that experiments are being made by order of the British government, to test the effects of antimony cannon balls on wooden surfaces. It is found that the balls of this metal break upon striking, and the numerous particles into which they separate are scattered in many directions, and would spread death and destruction on every side. An immediate supply of these antimony balls is to be dispatched to the fleets in the Baltic and Black seas.

THE FEELING.—The very high price already offered for real estate in the burnt district, shows that there is no dismay in consequence of the fire. The whole square will soon be rebuilt and in style, and in substantial elegance, far superior to any block in the state.—Wia.

THE RUINS.—Gangs of men commenced work in various parts of the burnt district this morning, cleaning away rubbish preparatory to commencing the erection of substantial brick edifices. Since the fire the demand for stores has been far beyond the supply, and our business men, who have been burnt out, have no alternative but to build.—Mil. News, 28th.

The publisher of the Wheeling Times, in giving the particulars of a recent difficulty between himself and the postmaster at that place, says: "So far as my paper is concerned, it shall be published free from the restraints of office holders' threats, if I have to place a revolver at the case of every compositor, and plant a swivel at the door of my office."

CITY HOTEL RENTED.—Mr. Button, formerly of the U. S. Hotel, has leased the City hotel, and is furnishing it in first rate style. It will be opened in a short time, when he will be glad to see his old friends and customers.—Mil. Sent.

ONE ONLY RE-NOMINATED.—Only one—Smith Miller—of the whole Nebraska delegation in congress from this state has been nominated for reelection, and it took fifty-two trials to do that. We predict that he will find it harder to be elected than nominated.—Indiana Free Democrat.

PARTY TESTS IN 1851.—Where is the democratic party, and how to be found? Is the present national administration the representative of it, or has it followed after strange gods?—The Washington Union, the organ of the administration, says the democratic party is to be found in the supporters of the Nebraska-Kansas bill, and that the president and his cabinet are the true representatives of the party and that none should be recognized as democrats but such as support the president in his new test. Hence we find the Nebraska papers rejoicing in the election of Kennett, a whig, over that sterling old democrat, Thos. H. Benton. When professed democratic papers rejoice on such occasions, we may well inquire, "where is the democratic party?" In the intoxication of power, the democratic party has exulted over its opponents as defunct—yes, has loudly proclaimed that the whig party is dead. The democratic party is now in danger; but not so much from old opponents as from new tests applied by those whom the party has warmed into life, and who now, viper like, poison their benefactors.

There is too much reason to fear that it is the determination of the present national administration to throw the power of the house into the hands of the whigs sooner than see anti-Nebraska democrats elected.

To what will the reflections of any reasonable man lead him when he looks over this state of political affairs of the country? They must inevitably lead him to the conclusion that party organization is breaking up, and that the power of the government will hereafter spring up fresh from the people, untrammelled by party ties or allegiance.—Burr Oak, (dem.)

RYE FOR FALL PASTURAGE.—The St. Louis Intelligencer says that a great many farmers in that region, finding their corn and grass crops short, are sowing rye for fall pasturage. Over fifty orders had been received from the country within a very few days for rye for this purpose.

PROMOTION FROM THE RANKS.—The late net making appropriations for the support of the army contains a provision which enables the president, with the consent of the senate, to confer the brevet of second lieutenant upon such meritorious non-commissioned officers as may, under regulations to be established, be brought before an army-board, composed of four officers, specially convened for the purpose and be found qualified for the duties of commissioned officers.

COMMANDER HOLLIS ARRESTED.—The Times informs us that on Thursday afternoon, Commander Hollis was arrested in New York, at the suit of Calvin Durand, for the destruction of property at the bombardment of Greystown. The order of arrest was granted by Judge Oakley, of the supreme court. The damages are laid at $14,000. The amount of bail given by Capt. Hollis was twenty thousand dollars. His sureties were Hon. Herman J. Redfield, collector of the port; John J. Case, sub-treasurer, and J. Romeyn Brodhead, naval officer.

Japan is a free and easy land. The climate is soft and delicious, the women pretty and polite, the men gallant and lazy. School don't keep but one day in the week, they have no preaching in hot weather, and allow good looking fellows four wives each, free of taxes, and plenty of servants to take care of his household. For life, that is not surpassed by anything common. Japan may be considered a good deal of the golden and sunny sort.

THE BOSTON STORE.
Let the Horn be Blown!!
"Sound the loud trumpet of war and of sea." WHEELLOCK'S triumph, and ever shall be.
THIS is the middle of the nineteenth century, the first half of which has produced more change and onward movement than any fifty years of our Christian Era.
The great controlling power of this age is its commerce—indeed, this may be truly called the commercial age.
It has been well said by an ancient writer that "Man wants but little here below," and to supply these wants
Announces to every people and every tongue, to both sexes and all parties, to all factions of all gauges, that finding his old store entirely TOO SMALL!
He has been compelled, in order to be able to supply the immense call for goods at his establishment, to Double the capacity of his Store Rooms!
Having purchased this spring, for this market, to be sold this season,
$39,007 00 Worth of Goods But who can expect to read in the brief space of one life all the articles that the

Indeed, history must fall to give the searcher of knowledge any accurate idea of its immense STOCK OF SUMMER GOODS, Its inimitable selection of Fancy Dress Goods!
He has over 10,000 Yards of Silk Bareges, of every style and price, and it is with no great difficulty that the fair damsels of this fair valley can select,
FROM THE ONE THOUSAND PIECES, Of all patterns and ranging in price from SIX CENTS Per Yard to Twenty-Eight Cents, such dresses as will add to their exquisite beauty as a general article of costly dress, and difficult to add to that beauty as it is to gift refined good, paint the lily, or add perfume to the violet.

It must not be inferred that we offer only these and the other articles for outer apparel, such as Champaigne and Toulard Silks, but all manner of Cotton, Grass & Linen Goods are on hand, so that every one may be entirely accommodated in the purchase of the every article of female apparel—Even French red floss Gaiters, do do do do do Ladies' Lined Boots, Lined sewed Congress Boots,
LADIES' MOCCOSI POLKAS,
And all the articles manufactured of the best styles.
So that this store, so far as articles which adorn La Belle sexe are concerned, it may be truly said "CSTOM cannot date the infinite variety."

While the Boston Store has made provision to protect the feet, it can also boast that it has all sorts of GLOVES,
by which hands can be protected and retain
"The white wonder of fair Juliet's hand."

And in taking leave of those of whom it is no exaggeration to say they are "Honey's last, best gift to man," the Nonpareils of beauty, the Paragons of perfection, the most perfect of the fair customers, so that his attendants and auxiliaries are those who unite great knowledge of the business, fine personal presence and affability of manner to a determination to discharge conscientiously their several and respective duties—that while they may have the proper desire to effect sales, they will never in imitation of many of our contemporaries attempt to accomplish that object by equivocation, misrepresentation, exaggeration, tergiversation, fabrication, or by direct lying.

And now to the
COARSE HAND SEX.
Mr. Wheellock has every kind of material to make these articles of dress that give to man his individuality—PANTALOONS,
PATENT LEATHER do., GIRAFFE do.,
That fit every head from the Websterian brow to the country politician's rince, from the size of caput of him who is closely shorn after the Fibberian fashion to that of him who wears the well-pomaded, ambrosified, elongated Hyppion curls.

And to the speculator who buys to sell again,
The Boston Store
Can, at lower rates of expense than any other establishment west of the Alleghany mountains, furnish that class of exchanges so that riches will fill their pockets as water fills the sea. And to them we offer DOMESTIC GLASSWARE, WOODEN, Buckles, Handkerchiefs, Cotton Yarn, Ready-made Vests, Ground Pepper, Flannels, Looking Glasses, Ready-Made Over Coats, Pants, Raisins, Flat Irons and Cotton Batting, Lanterns, Satchels, which the willing school-boy with shining morning face, and the old man with his face cheerful, Norwegian Handboxes and Hair Trunks, facture, Pitchers for milk or water, Tea Pots, Spittoons, glass, children's Toys and Flower Pots, STAIN-LESS LIQUOR LAW VOLUMES and Lager Beer Mugs.

And in due, the proprietor of this establishment can with all confidence assure those who have been in the habit of trading at a distance, that although they have "Often seen corruption bolt and bubble till It o'erran the sieve."

They will find that the representations which shall be made to them by that proprietor or his clerks will not "Stand like forfeits in a Barber shop, More in mock than mark."
